ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND AND CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND, GLASGOW AND BRIDGE-OF-WEIR.

NARRATIVE OF FACTS, 1902.

DEAR FELLOW-HELPERS,—Another year of busy work has passed, and in God's good providence we are spared to give an account of our stewardship for this, the thirty-first year of the Homes, and the thirty-eighth of our work among poor children. For the manifestations of God's goodness in the gifts received and in the increased numbers of fatherless children and needy sufferers from consumption He has enabled us to help we praise Him who has privileged us to be His instruments in this service.

The results accomplished have been beyond our anticipations not only in the Homes but in the Sanatoria department, where the numbers helped have been more than double that of last year. That there have been difficulties and trials throughout the year goes without saying, "for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto," but through them all we have realised His grace sufficient for us. The money required for the maintenance of the children has kept pace almost daily with the increasing demands of our large and growing family, and the year closes with every obligation met and sufficient on hand for a few days' provision. When it is remembered that no one is ever asked personally for money and that no letters have appeared in the press during the past year in behalf of the Orphan Homes (although we have written about the Sanatoria occasionally), and that in answer to prayer, £15,757 have been sent to us for the support of the 1,474 children who have been under our care, we feel sure all must acknowledge that God lives and reigns, and that He is still the Hearer and Answerer of prayer. Quietly and unostentatiously the gifts have been sent to us day by day. They have come from friends known and unknown, from old and from young, from rich and from poor, from our own land and from other lands, all telling us of hearts seeking to do God's will upon earth, and to hasten the coming of His kingdom. The following are the amounts received during the year for the purposes named:—

I. For the General Account (which includes the maintenance of 1,474 children and over 100 workers),	£15,757	5	11
II. For the Orphan Homes Building Account,	8,111	2	8
III. For the Consumption Sanatoria,	6,152	4	7
A total of,	£30,020	13	2

The need of more Gifts for Consumption Sanatoria. While gratefully appreciating all the generous gifts to the Consumption Sanatoria which have provided Scotland with an open door for her female suffering poor, we are sorry that there has not been a larger response during the past year towards providing increased accommodation. If the plague of our land is to be lessened, and ultimately banished, more strenuous efforts must be made to combat it. More Sanatoria is the crying need of the times, and especially Sanatoria for the male bread-winners. It remains with the wealthy and well-to-do to say whether they will help their weak brothers and sisters in their struggle for life or whether they will stand passively by and let them die for lack of the helping hand that would rescue them from the ravages of the plague, and give them back to their families and friends. Our plans for adequate provision have been fully explained in previous reports and in the press. We want £100,000 to make these plans a reality—that is, to erect three more Sanatoria for women in addition to the two now in operation, and to build five for men, each Sanatorium having 40 beds—a total of 200 for females and 200 for males. With such an equipment about 1,200 patients could be treated annually. A glance at our Medical Officer's Report on page 70 will shew what splendid results have already been obtained, and also the national character of the Sanatoria in receiving patients from all parts of the country as well as from Glasgow and the surrounding districts.

A Plea for Epileptics. The Colony of Mercy for Epileptics of Scotland is likely to take definite shape this coming year, as we have received in gifts and promises £7,500 towards the £20,000 required. The generosity of the few interested in this scheme is worthy of emulation, and we hope many other friends will share in the honour of removing from our land the stigma that she has no provision but the poorhouse and the asylum for her epileptics.

Reference has already been made to the trials of the year, and of these the continuance of the education difficulty is the greatest. The unjust treatment meted out to us by the Renfrewshire Rating Authorities and the Kilmalcolm School Board is well known. Their idea seems to be that the Homes are here for the benefit of the other residents in the parish and county, and that the £307 of parish, school and county rates, which the Homes pay annually, are to be used to save the pockets of other rate-payers, including wealthy landowners, members of Parliament, and Glasgow merchants resident in the County, while the Homes are to have no share in the privileges for which rates are exacted. The latest development

Rates still exacted without privileges. is a renewed attempt on the part of the Lower District Committee to shirk their statutory obligation to deal with infectious cases taking place in the Homes. The Local Government Board insisted upon the cases being removed, and suggested a mutual arrangement, which was drawn up and agreed to by us, but the Committee still refuses to acknowledge that we have any place in the county or any legal rights but the paying of rates! We are waiting for the decision of the Inner Court with regard to the School, and expect to have it in December or January. The work of the Homes benefits the whole country, as children from every county and burgh have been rescued and cared for, and this alone should be a claim for all Scotch members of Parliament to use their influence in the House to secure justice for the most needy and helpless members of their constituencies.

The Homes and Sanatoria are carried on, as they were begun, in dependence upon God. No one is called on for money nor do we send out collectors, or give lectures for money, or resort to bazaars and entertainments to raise it. The needs are committed to God in prayer, and we look to Him to move the hearts of His children to send the means to carry on His own work.

The following details from our diary of the many ways in which God has supplied the "daily bread," and some of the letters received from the scattered members of our family and from former patients will interest friends, and we trust lead them to magnify the Lord with us:—

Nov. 1, 1901.—As we pause on the threshold of another year of service we are reminded that the path before us is an untried one, and that difficulties greater than any we have encountered before may beset it. Our hope is in our unchangeable God whose is the work and whose instruments we are. May He fit and prepare us for all that He has for us to do. The gifts of to-day include an anonymous £5 from Kilwinning; 4s. 6d. from a minister who both prays for and gives to the work; £1 from a frequent helper; 14s. in memory of Wee Alick; £1 to help a soldier's orphans; £5 from a friend in Australia who writes from a hotel where he was resting for half an hour while attending markets. He says, "As your Homes and the very pleasant afternoon I spent there have been very fresh in my memory for the past few days, I thought a letter and a small help would be acceptable to you. I know the vastness of your needs and your huge family, even being supported by the hand of its Heavenly Father, cannot but consume much of this world's goods. I should much like to have a large photo. of the entire village if you ever have it taken. Such a picture awakens the interest of philanthropic people who will not give to anything unless they can see photos. and hear from some one who has actually been on the spot. Wishing your Homes every blessing and spiritual prosperity." Thus from the other side of the world has God's messenger come to cheer us as we enter upon another year. Besides £12 18s. 6d. in money there have reached us 22 dozen loaves from a Glasgow firm, 29 articles of useful clothing from a Y.W.C.A., a hamper of used garments, still very serviceable, from Bothwell, and 8 new garments from sisters in Edinburgh who have almost since the beginning of the work ministered to our necessities. One of them writes:

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—My sisters and I have sent you to-day a parcel of made-up clothing for your orphans which we hope you may find useful for them. You have all ages and sizes to provide, so a small bundle never can come wrong. This is but a drop in the bucket of your needs, but even drops are thankfully received in a thirsty land. We are pleased to have this small connection with so great a work. I trust you are keeping well in health: you, the big father to so many needy ones. Many will be able to point to you on the Great Day as the one who saved them from misery here, and led them by the hand to the Saviour of the lost. You have had a blessed work here, and your reward will be great.

A fatherless girl from Annan and a boy of 10 from Fifeshire have been added to our number to-day.

Nov. 2.—Two friends called, one with £25 from himself and a friend, and the other with £2. A widow's mite of £1 for the Sanatoria is the first gift of this year for that purpose.

Nov. 4.—A mother writes: "I have pleasure in sending you again my small annual donation (6s.) to your beneficent work. I like to send this always in November in loving memory of my dear little girl who died five years ago this month, aged 5½ years. If I could I would send much more, but being only a working man's wife, and having other Christian agencies that I like to help as God's goodness enables me, I cannot. With prayers for a divine blessing on all your labours." £2 2s. comes from a Caledonian Society in the North of England "with the hope that your gallant efforts on behalf of the poor and needy may prosper in the future even more than in the past."

Nov. 8.—A lady in S. Shields writes: "I do not know how you and your large family party are getting on this winter. It is a hard one for many, and promises to be a cold one. I enclose 10s., and may the blessing of our Lord and Saviour go with it, and it will be of use." It means no small additional outlay to provide warmer clothing, stronger boots, more coal, and all the extras the cold weather necessitates. How many well-to-do mothers and fathers, while planning for the comfort of their own little ones, might think of the hundreds of fatherless needy ones whom the Heavenly Father has gathered into the Homes to be cared for by His people. There was brought to us to-day a paralysed boy who, though ten years of age, has never walked.

Nov. 12.—From a Bible Class, £2; from another, 10s.; from a Sabbath forenoon meeting, £1 15s.; from one who has pleasant recollections of his visit last September, £5 for Homes and £5 for Sanatoria; from Dumfries,

THE AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHER TAKING SOME OF THE BABIES AND DOLLIES.

7s. 6d.; from Haddington, £2; from an Ayrshire Sabbath School, 10s.; from "Inasmuch," Edinburgh, 6s.; and from Fort-William, £1, have reached us to-day. Also the following from one of our old girls now in a situation:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I thought I would write and thank you as best I can for all your kindness to me in more ways than one. I am sending a very little, compared with the debt I owe you. I assure you I am deeply grateful to you. I hope you are keeping well and able to go about and Mrs. Quarrier also. I've been very fortunate in getting such a good place as this.—Yours gratefully.

The Phoebe Band, Edinburgh, have again helped us by sending two large boxes containing 315 useful garments. It is a source of great encouragement to us that so many friends continue from year to year to remember our needs and send their gifts as regularly as if called upon, shewing that our Master still directs His servants. A girl now filling a responsible position writes: "I was so glad to get your letter. Thank you so much for your thoughts and prayers for me. Truly I need them. I was just thinking a short time ago how hard it is to do right here. I want to give the best that is in me to the work, and sometimes I get so impatient. It seems to me so many unnecessary things happen through the carelessness and neglect of some one—little things, of course, but it is the little things that count, and I begin to lose faith in human nature. Then I get over it and start again. I want to thank you and tell you, you will never know how much you have done for me. I often think of the old days, no days since have been as happy. I do carry a thankful heart to all the friends at Bridge-of-Weir, and I am looking forward to seeing you all again if the Lord will. In the meantime I hope to be a credit to those who had my training in early days." We thank God and take courage, as we hear from one and another whom God has made us the means of blessing to, praying that they in their turn may pass on the blessing to others.

Nov. 16.—From Helensburgh, £1; from Bridge of Allan, £1; from Paisley, anonymous, "In memory of a loved one gone home," 5s.; from Lanark, £2; "asking the blessing of our loving Lord to go with it and rest on all your endeavours in doing good to your fellow-creatures;" from Dundee, 5s.; from Newmains, 10s.; from Ayr, £1. These are all the gifts in money to-day. A parcel containing 15 pairs of stockings knitted by a Y.W.C.A. Bible Class helps to fill up some of the varied needs of our large family.

Nov. 18.—£9 8s. 10d. have come to-day, including £2 18s. 10d. from Dunedin and £5 from a friend who annually sends that amount to defray the expense of taking a band of the children to the annual meeting in Glasgow.

Nov. 20.—The following account of our annual meeting is abridged from the Glasgow Herald:—

The annual meeting in connection with the work carried on at the Orphan Homes of Scotland was held yesterday in the Christian Institute, Glasgow. The Hon. the Lord Provost (Dr Samuel Chisholm) presided, and there were also present:—Lord Overtoun, Sir Thomas Glen Coats, Bart; Councillors Bilsland, Sinclair, J. P. Maclay, and M'Cutcheon; Professor Barlow, Dr E. Duncan, Revs John Urquhart and Aaron Mathews, Mr. James Daly, Mr. Robert Buchanan, Mr. Leonard Gow, Mr. R. Anderson, Mr. W. Sloan, Mr. R. A. Bryden, and Mr. William Quarrier.

The Lord Provost, in his opening remarks, said that he regarded this institution as one of the most extraordinary, as well as one of the most beneficent, not only in Glasgow and the West of Scotland but within the three kingdoms. He called this an institution, and yet there was less of the institution about it than about any similar undertaking that he knew. Mr. Quarrier strove to strip his undertaking of everything like institutionising his children. (Applause.) They were the members of his family; Mr. Quarrier presided over them with a father's care, and Mrs Quarrier with a mother's love. In this Mr. Quarrier was ably assisted by other members of his family, and not only so, but that spirit which he manifested was sent down and so permeated all the workers in connection with the varied cottages in which the children are—he would not say housed—cared for, loved, protected and blessed. But Mr. Quarrier's efforts were not confined to children. In the Consumption Sanatoria Mr. Quarrier had already made to some extent, and wished to make to a greater extent, provision for the treatment of victims of consumption, the scourge of our country. What to ordinary mortals seemed the most wonderful thing was, where does Mr. Quarrier get the money to do all this work? He got it where he had always got it—from the unfailing source to which Mr. Quarrier applies. He got it from those whose hearts the Lord had touched, and who out of love to Him and care for the children and the needy had confidence in Mr. Quarrier's administration and send him ever all that he requires in order to continue with undiminished prosperity and success his beneficent labours. What the city of Glasgow would have been if the children now cared for at Bridge of Weir had been left uncared for he left them to conjecture. In all conscience, Glasgow is bad enough as it is. He regretted we had no means of dealing with the children of the streets. They still continue the perplexity of the magistrates and the shame of the city; but how much we see they would be if the large number who had been taken from the streets or the possibility of reaching the streets and cared for at Bridge of Weir imagination almost failed to conjecture.

Mr. R. A. BRYDEN submitted the annual report.

LORD OVERTOUN, in moving the adoption of the report, said that Mr. Quarrier's methods formed an object-lesson of faith and the power of prayer.

Sir THOMAS GLEN COATS seconded the motion, which was approved.

Mr. BRYDEN next presented the abstract of income and expenditure in connection with the Consumption Sanatoria.

Dr. DUNCAN, in moving the adoption of the accounts, spoke of the excellent work done at the sanatoria, and urged the importance of more being accomplished in this direction. He also emphasised the necessity of stringent regulations for dealing with the great evil of spitting. It was most disgusting to see men spitting in all directions.

The motion was adopted.

At this stage the Lord Provost had to leave the meeting, and his place in the chair was taken by ex-Bailie Alexander Sinclair, who moved a cordial vote of thanks to his Lordship, which was heartily adopted.

Mr. QUARRIER then addressed the meeting. He expressed his thanks for the liberality shown in the past and his confidence in the future. They wanted £100,000 to build additional sanatoria, £20,000 to enable them to provide for the treatment of epileptics, and £40,000 for the work in connection with the Orphan Homes, besides other expenses. As to the proposal of the School Board to establish a school for truants, he thought it right, but he also was strongly of opinion that steps should be taken to control the streets.

We were cheered by the presence and sympathy of the many friends who were present at our annual meeting, and wished that more could have joined us to rejoice over God's goodness through another year of the work. Only £2 1s. 6d. came yesterday, and to-day £20 6s. 11d., and to meet the current expenses it takes over £60 a day.

Nov. 21.—£9 1s. in gifts to-day. An old friend writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I am now sending away four bags of potatoes addressed to the City Home and carriage paid. I have been trying to interest some of the people here in your work, and find that very little is known about it. Some have heard of the Homes, but I do not think I have met with one person who has ever seen them. So I hope it will be good for the people themselves to know what is being done for the orphans. I have got a little money, which I hope to send at the end of the month. With our united kind regards to Mrs. Quarrier and family, I am, yours sincerely.

Nov. 25.—For the past week the daily amounts sent in have been very small compared with our requirements, but the Father knows what things we have need of. From a former donor £1, with the following letter:—

DEAR SIR,—The enclosed is a thankoffering to God's work which you carry on for Him. I have long promised Him, after reading your book which you send regularly, if I could pay off all my debts, I would give you 10s., and this I am able to do now, so I make it £1 as I have a little over. I have been putting it off till I would have time, or you would have had it two months ago, so the danger is I might not have sent it at all and thereby lose my dear Lord's blessing, for He has said, "Pay unto the Lord thy vows." Excuse me saying so much, but your book has helped me a lot to lean on God, and I have not been disappointed.—Yours in Christian service.

Another dear friend and fellow-helper writes from his farm in the West of Scotland: "It is only this week that I am able to see clearly that I can help a little, as in former years. This is not such a profitable one, as the prices of sheep and cattle are so unsteady. But I am glad to be able to enclose you a cheque for £30 to help your orphanage work." From Australia, 14s., "in memory of a dear husband." A minister of the Gospel sends 20s., and says: "I have most pleasant recollections of the Orphan Homes, and of you in particular. I have indeed to thank you for having confirmed me in an opinion that for years had been growing on me, and the truth of which I have found many signal proofs of in my own poor ministry—that the Lord will open and shut doors for us if we are His. I must say that it gives me at least a great peace to know that I am where the good Father has put me, and to this I attribute any success in the work that may have come to me. What I really wanted to write about was to enclose a small contribution for the Homes. I only took this opportunity of thanking you for what you probably did not know you had accomplished." We thank God for many evidences that He is using our testimony to strengthen the faith of His own people, and we earnestly desire that the work may ever be the means of witnessing to the world that God is, and that He is the Hearer and Answerer of prayer.

Nov. 26.—"From an old girl now in service," £1; from England, 10s.; The donor writes: "It is simply delightful to read of the faithfulness and goodness of our God to you during another year. I cannot express how much my dear wife and I enjoy your account of His daily provision for your large family." The daily experience is wonderful to us, and we can only praise our Heavenly Father that since the day—now over 30 years ago—that the first orphan child was admitted to the Homes, He has never suffered us to lack daily bread. When our family was small sufficient came to feed them, and now that there are over 1400 mouths to fill "His love is still the same." A dear invalid friend in Aberdeen writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—Will you please accept the enclosed £4 (four pounds), being proceeds from work done and sold, except 5s. from a friend and 1s. 6d. from two friends for a read of "A Boy's Resolve, and what came of it." Like you I have much to be thankful for, for our Heavenly Father permitted me to breathe the outside world air and to look upon the green fields, which I have not done for nine teen years previously. I could not tell what my feelings were, although shut in for the winter, still I feel so thankful to our Father in Heaven for all His goodness and mercy towards me.

We unite with our sister in thanksgiving, and praise God also for her fellowship with us, and for her testimony to the grace that enables her through much affliction to glorify Him:

Nov. 29.—From an anonymous giver in Paisley, 6s., "which is my first contribution, and I trust it will not be my last." A grateful mother writes: "I enclose you 10s. for the benefit of the orphans. I can never repay you for what you have done for my boy." Another anonymous "well-wisher" writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—This is a crisp new note I got to-day, and I gladly send it to you to help your large family. I have long wished to do this, but never had the courage to write before. Trusting you are in good health.

The many givers who prefer not to reveal their names to us, may not know how often we thank God in their behalf. We feel sure the gifts are prompted by the loving Father, and that He in every case fulfils His promise, "He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord, and that which he hath given will He pay him again." During the month we have added to the number in the Homes 25 new cases, all of them being eligible because of their being fatherless and destitute. Several were sent to us by the S.P.C.C., who having secured a conviction against the drunken mothers, removed the children from their custody. Some of them are the orphan children of respectable parents, who, in the struggle for existence were unable to gather anything to leave for their children's support. Some of them are the offspring of consumptive parents, indeed one admitted is the last of a family, the father and mother and five children having all been cut off by the dreaded disease. Is it any wonder we long for more to be done to free our land from its thralldom? Why should not our Sanitary Authorities deal with it as they have done in past years with cholera and plague, and smallpox, and banish it from the land.

Dec. 2.—From Dublin, £1, with the following letter:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—The receipt of your report this afternoon reminds me of a neglected duty, as I find I have not forwarded to you my small contribution for the year in aid of the noble work for the Master which you and yours are so successfully carrying on, for, and on behalf of the waifs and strays of dear old

"LINCOLN AND GARFIELD" HOME WITH FATHER AND MOTHER AND CHILDREN.

Scotland. I have occasionally had a rather distant and somewhat hurried view of your "town" at Bridge-of-Weir, and have often wished for an opportunity to make a closer inspection. That privilege and pleasure may be mine later, I hope. I enclose my cheque for One Pound, and in doing so pray very earnestly that your labours may in the years to come be as fruitful as they have been in the past.

Another friend forwarding £2 1s. 6d., and some clothing writes: "I cannot tell you how I did enjoy my visit to your hospitable Home and wonderful village. Often, often do I think and speak of all we saw. Oh what a blessing for so many wee bairns to be trained up so well for that better Home above, where the Friend for little children reigns for ever. What a glorious and blessed work you are doing!" It is a pleasure to us when friends come to see what their gifts are accomplishing, and all the Homes are open daily until 5 p.m. The Callander Branch of that most helpful organisation, the S.G.F.S., has for some years past sent out invitations to the members to bring or send a contribution for the Homes to a special meeting, and thereafter the gifts are sent on to us. Seven boxes, containing 542 useful articles from the Society, arrived at our stores to-day, gladdening our hearts and lightening our burdens. From Irvine another friend writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—Thank you very much for the yearly report received a few days ago, it is a most interesting book, and most wonderful how the money and the necessities flow in; it is also wonderful although so many workers for the orphans go to their long home, more, always more, are raised up. Our Father is so good to you and all connected with the good work. I am glad Mrs. Quarrier and you are much better, and hope all the works will prosper, and that some with the needed means will be raised up to give.

Dec. 3.—From a teacher who recently visited the Homes, and was delighted with all she saw, 10s.; from a servant who read the report which her employer received, 15s. 1d.; from a lady who sends the same amount yearly for the support of a little girl, £12; from Edinburgh, £1, for the Orphan Homes, and £2 for the Epileptic Colony. This is the first contribution this year towards this object, and we take it as a fresh token that our desire to see it established will be carried out in God's good time. From London £5 with the following: "I have read your narrative with great interest and much thanksgiving to God for His signal favour to you and the Orphanage. Your wonderful work and His blessing on it constitute a special message to us all—a challenge to trust in Him with implicit faith. Let me join you in giving thanks for the multitude of His benefits." From Edinburgh 22 pairs of boys' socks, "which completes 100 pairs done by my own hands since the first of Jan. this year." Our friend says also that she is not able now to go out after dark, but can read while she works, and so employs and enjoys herself at the same time.

Dec. 4.—£1, as a thankoffering for advice received at the Dispensary; from Shotts, 5s., and some useful clothing; from Oban, 20s.; a thankoffering, 10s.; "two friends," £2; the aunt of an orphan family helped, £3; sister and brother, Edinburgh, £2; from Selkirk, 5s.; from St. Andrews, £2; from Greenock, £1; from a Scotchman in London, £50.

Dec. 5.—£1 from Wigtownshire, as a thankoffering from a father for being spared to his young family; £1 from Helensburgh, "a small remembrance on mother's birthday"; £10 from Greenock, "a thankoffering for restored health to a member of the family"; from Greenock, £3; an old Home girl, 10s.; £1 from Hampshire; £200 for Sanatoria, and £100 for the orphans from a friend of the work sojourning in Bath; from Edinburgh, £1, with the following letter:—

DEAR SIR,—I have pleasure in sending herewith my small contribution towards the support of your large family. It has been on my mind to suggest that many good openings could be had for some of the girls in domestic service in our own country, where, as you know, there is such scarcity of servants. I feel sure many could find excellent and comfortable places in this land, and be as well off as in Canada. I don't know if you have considered this subject. I know some of our largest printers complain of the difficulty of getting female labour, which they attribute, I believe, in large measure to so many being sent out of the country by such institutions as yours and Dr. Barnardo's. I know your desire is to do the best for the children, and you may have fully considered this—which is a serious matter to many who gladly support your work. I trust you are in fair health, and have encouragement in your work, which has its anxieties.

This objection is one that has often been raised, and many friends are not aware that five years ago we stopped sending children to Canada. The hundreds who have left the shelter of the Homes since that time are now earning their livelihood in their native land. In some cases it means a brave fight to resist the dragging down influences of ill-doing relatives, not unfrequently of drunken mothers, and while there have been failures, we have much reason to rejoice over many who are leading useful lives, and seeking to serve the great Master. In this connection it is pleasant to receive such letters as the following :—

DEAR SIR,—L. S. has been in my employ for nearly two years, and I thought you would be pleased to know how she was doing. I have found her one of the most reliable, conscientious girls I have ever had in my house. She attends church and is a member of a young ladies' Bible class. I am glad to say that she is trying to live a Christian life, and I shall always use my influence to help her in the service of our common Lord. Wishing you every success in your noble work.

Dec. 7.—From Ayr, 4 bolls of oatmeal. This is a most useful gift, as it takes over two tons of meal every month to make the porridge for the family. We still believe that porridge and sweet milk make the most wholesome breakfast for growing children, and our milk bill is also a heavy item in our expenses. From Kelso, 5s.; from Annan, 30s.; from Glasgow, £10 and £12; from “a grateful mother of boys helped,” £1; from Paisley, £50. The gifts to-day for the Homes amount to £128 5s., sufficient to cover the day's expenses, and make up something of the deficiency of another, but there is only 5s. towards the Sanatoria. The needs of the sufferers are pressing heavily upon us, and we are seeking to know the Lord's will regarding the future of this branch of our service for Him.

Dec. 10.—£2 from a friend who says, “I am glad to report well to you of M. who left you some years ago and came to this place. Two years ago she went to Edinburgh and is doing well there”; from Kilmalcolm, £10 for Homes and £5 for Consumption Sanatoria; from Hamilton, £5 5s.; from Langside, £5; from an aged friend in Cambuslang, 5s.; from Larbert, £10; from Carlisle, £20 in aid of the Consumption Sanatorium for men; from little Jack “in memory of his little sister who is in glory now, after a long and serious illness” 5s.; from Dumfriesshire, £50, which has been divided equally between the Homes and Sanatoria; from a working man, three pairs of socks made by him at leisure time.

Dec. 13.—Included in the forty separate contributions which have reached us to-day are “a drop in the bucket,” 1s. from Edinburgh; 1s. from Bearsden; £1 from an Evangelist; two scrap books made in the kindergarten department of a Paisley School; £10 from Dumfries; £3 from Motherwell; bulbs from a Glasgow firm; £10 from Pollokshields; 5s. from Ayr; £1 from Stonehaven; £2 from Edinburgh; £1 from Stirling; £2 14s. from Paisley, the proceeds of all sorts of cakes, scones, etc., made by young friends, and sold on behalf of the Homes. Of the four children added to our number to-day, one is from Paisley, a wee lassie of 5, whose father dying, left the mother with a burden she has found herself unfit to carry alone. Another received is from Edinburgh, her mother ill in the hospital, and her father hopelessly insane.

Dec. 17.—From London, £11 14s., “to buy a ton of oatmeal as a Christmas gift to the Orphans with every kind wish and the hope that every one of them may realize how true the Master's words, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive’ when they come to years of discretion and are able to help others in their turn”; from an anonymous donor, half a bag of flour. Of this necessary we use about 9 tons every month for the bread, scones, puddings, etc., made to satisfy the needs of the hundreds under our care. From the sewing meeting in Apsley Place, which has for so many years helped us to clothe many needy ones, a large quantity of useful articles of clothing, and dolls, toys, etc., for Christmas trees, came to hand to-day. Thanks be to God who put the same earnest care into the heart of His children for us. A friend sending £100 for Epileptics, and £20 for the Homes, writes :—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—I was very much gratified to see from your report that you purpose founding a Colony of Mercy for those suffering from epilepsy. That you, with so much on hand already, should grapple with this great suffering class, fills me with admiration and gratitude; to His name be all the praise. I enclose cheque for £120—one hundred pounds for the Colony of Mercy, and twenty pounds for your orphans, or what to you seems best. With warmest regards and sympathy.

Dec. 18.—The encouragement given to us by yesterday's gifts for the maintenance and for the new Colony of Mercy, has been increased by the many tokens of loving sympathy from near and far received to-day. Truly our “cup runneth over.” Among the gifts are £5 from Edinburgh; 5s. from Walkersburn; £1 from Duns; 2s. 6d. from Prestwick; 8s. 6d. from Maryburgh; 30s. from Galashiels, from proceeds of fancy bird selling; £2 from Bothwell; 10s. from one of the Orphan girls as a thank-offering; 5s. from Kilmalcolm; £2 from Edinburgh for extra Sanatoria; £10 from Stirling for Sanatoria; £1 1s. from a Glasgow firm; £1 from a mother and two daughters in Renfrew; 10s. from Pollokshaws, as a small expression of sympathy; 17 cuts worsted from Mount Florida; 10s. from Kilchattan Bay; 5s. from Aberdeen; 10s. from Edinburgh for Sanatoria; 6d. in stamps from Glasgow; 2s. from an old worker; £1 from Forres; 10s. 3d. from a Parish S.S. in Glasgow; 15s. from a Sabbath Morning Meeting in Paisley; 10s. from a S.S. in Kirkcaldy; 10s. from Irvine; £40 from Windermere; £1 1s. from employees of an Assurance Co.; £2 from a S.S. Missionary Society; £100 from an anonymous friend; £200 for Homes and £100 for Sanatoria from Glasgow; £150 for Sanatoria, and £250 for Homes from friends in the East of Scotland who request that we use what portion we think right in providing a Christmas or New Year treat for the young folks (and old folks too), in the various branches of the work; £180 from friends in Glasgow for the maintenance of one of the Homes; £1,010 19s. 11d. from friends who desire to remain unknown to help in building an additional Sanatorium for Consumptives. In view of all these gifts, we feel that God says to us “go forward,” and we trust He will give the wisdom and grace to follow wherever He leads us.

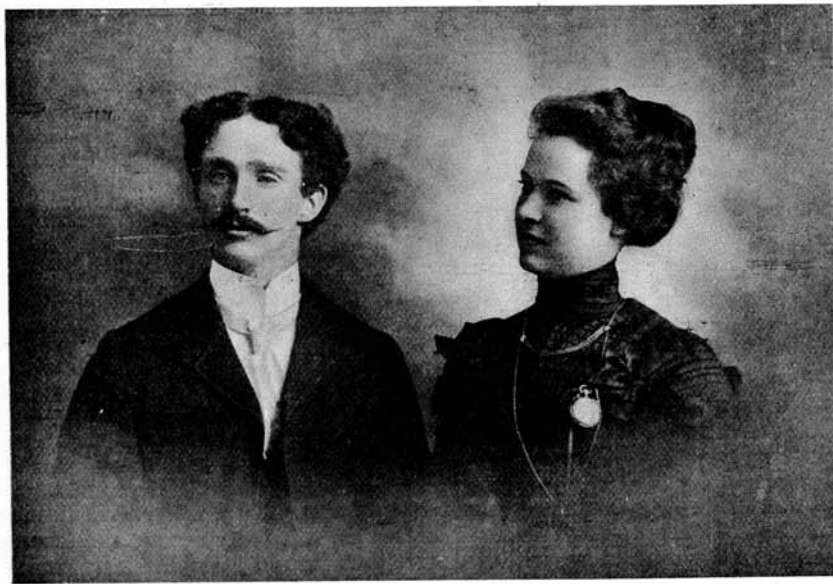

Dec. 19.—The gifts to-day amount to £52 14s. 8d. for the General Fund, and £5 for the proposed Men's Sanatorium. £1 comes from a Mission School in Beyrout, along with five letters written in “English” by some of the pupils. One is as follows :—

MR. QUARRIER, DEAR SIR,—We are send you an English pound. Because our principal told us about the orphan homes. She told us also that you has twelve hundreds children. We were very wonder. Because we are one hundred and fifty girl. She showed us you picture. When you was a little boy. She showed us more when you are a teacher. We saw your children in the picture. Some of them are sewing. We are very glad to see you and your children. Every Thursday we have collection. Our principal showed us some of your poor children without shoes. When you took them to you. They have seen like the angels. We were very surprised from your kindness. Because which trust on God all his heart with be very happy, poor or rich. We are very glad to hear all this about you. We ask God to guide you from every thing bad. And if you please remember us in your lovely prayer. We are very glad to go to your school. Excuse me for this bad letter. Because I don't know English very well.—Your loving little friend,—R. D.

Dec 20.—An old friend in Shetland who has for many years contributed sends 10s., and says, “I sometimes think of you as a man greatly to be envied, for there is a whole generation rising up to call you blessed, and far beyond that there is the unspeakable blessing of the Master awaiting

you. You are showing forth every year by your works that you are fighting the good fight of faith. You have opposition and difficulties, but your encouragements far surpass them all." Our brother is right. We never expect to be without trouble, for did not our Master say, "In the world ye shall have tribulation." The rest of the passage is, "In Me ye shall have peace," and we can praise Him for that also.

Dec. 21.—Among the gifts to-day are £3 from Montreal; £1 from Govan "as a small token of thanks from one who is grateful for blessings received;" $10 from Ontario with the words, "There is no want to them that fear the Lord. They that fear the Lord shall not lack any good thing. He abideth faithful." 5s. "instead of sending Xmas cards to our friends;" 15s. "from our children and some friends;" £3 5s. from girls in a School in Greenock; £1 from a little girl in Biggar; £3 from a Glasgow business man "as an expression of cordial sympathy;" £1 from Paisley,

TWO OF OUR CHILDREN IN CANADA PHOTOGRAPHED ON THEIR WEDDING DAY.

"for the children's Xmas treat;" 5s. from "the Lord's box," Dundee; 14s. 1d. and two boxes with 22 articles of clothing, dolls, etc., the work of a class of Sabbath School girls at Prestwick.

Dec. 23.—From X.Y.Z., 10s.; "thank offering from a sympathiser," £1; 6s., anonymous, "to help to get something for the little ones;" £1 from Bridge of Allan, "a small offering for the large family God has blessed you with." From Edinburgh a friend writes, "I enclose you £2 to go to whichever Home needs it most. Though A. (a boy we helped in the Home) is now away from you I am always hearing from him, and glad that he is getting on so well. In his last letter he said he never would forget the kindness and good training that he had got in the Homes." From Montrose one ton of oatmeal in good sound condition; from Edinburgh, £25; from Partick, £50; from Lenzie, £5, and the kind offer of a gift for each girl in our invalid Home; from Inverness, 10s.; from Ayr, 10s.; Jeanie and Robbie, 2s. 6d. each.

Dec. 24.—From Edinburgh, £10, "a small thank-offering first to God and then to you for the work in which you are engaged;" £5 from four little girls "who, having come into a small sum of money as a Christmas present, are anxious to do something to help their poorer brothers and sisters;" 6s. from Fife, "money I used to waste on tobacco;" from Ayrshire, two cheeses, a welcome addition to our supplies; from England we have the following letter:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I have long wished to express my gratitude to you on behalf of the three little D— girls whom you took under your care some years ago. When my dear husband told their dying mother that Mr. Quarrier had promised to take her little ones into the Home, the load of care was lifted from her heart. She lived to see them depart for Bridge-of-Weir, and this knowledge was like a gleam of sun-light that brightened the gloom of that last farewell which they bade her, in her ward in the Edinburgh Infirmary. My beloved husband died three years ago. I feel sure he sent you a subscription for your great work from time to time. These things he told to no one. I wish to follow his example in this respect; so will you kindly accept the enclosed cheque, which appropriate as you think best. Yours is indeed a mighty and a far reaching enterprise. God bless your efforts.

It is a great joy to us that the Lord enables us to make the dying widow's last days brighter with the assurance that her orphan children will be cared for until they are able to do for themselves. Happy are the children who have the memory of a good mother, but, alas! how many who come to us knew nothing of a mother's love or care, because of the curse of drink? Would that it could be banished from the land. One who remembers us annually writes:

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I enclose as usual £2 as a Christmas donation for your work from the Lord's Fund, and may you more and more as the years go by experience in your own heart the "Well Done" from our "Beloved Lord and Master," whose we are, and whom we endeavour to serve in loving obedience, and may both Mrs. Quarrier and yourself enjoy many years of physical health and strength to carry on your Christ-like work for others. I had a letter from one of your old girls lately. To a question I put to her in a letter some months ago she replies—"I have given my heart to Jesus and try to follow in His footsteps. I joined the Church five years ago, and attend the Sunday School and Church regularly every Sabbath."

Dec. 25.—Many gifts and many good wishes have found their way to us to-day. One of our old girls sends £3 3s., which she has collected among her companions and friends. Another sends 4s. A Sabbath School teacher when forwarding 12 yards of useful material for garments, writes:

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—A friend of mine, some time ago, began to interest me in your noble work among the destitute children. And after thinking the matter over, I took down one of your report books and read a part of it to my children in the Sunday school. When I had finished one or two of them (I may here say that it is a mission school in a very poor locality), asked me if I would take a halfpenny every Sunday night till Christmas, so as we would be able to send you something for the children. Please accept this little gift from us, along with our very best wishes for success. I hope we will be able to do more for you in the future if God spares us.

Dec. 27.—Among the fifty-one gifts received to-day, amounting to £54 18s. 5d. for the Homes and £8 5s. for Sanatoria, are £7 from a Co-operative Baking Society for the Homes and £6 for Sanatoria; £15 from Brechin; £2 from employees in Renfrew; £10 from Glasgow; 5s. from Aberdeenshire; 7s. 6d. from an old teacher; £1 from two workers; 12s. 6d. "in memoriam;" £2 "a birthday thank-offering and in memory of a dear daughter;" £1 "in Memoriam," from Stranraer; 3s. "Wee Agnes's pennies," Arbroath; a village S.S., Crossford, £1 0s. 10d.; from F.J.S., £2; from Lerwick, £3 10s.; from a small Sunday class in Grantown,

8s. 6d.; from "Anonymous," Thornhill, a box with fowls, rabbit, cakes, honey, jam, scones, tea, sugar, and 53 articles of clothing, for all of which we are very thankful.

Dec. 28.—A mite from Aberdeen, 4s.; from the girls in one of the Homes and their mother, 25s.; from a school in Kinross, 14s.; from a family in Stornoway, £3 10s.; one who has been long interested sends £100, making to-day's total £140 2s. 6d. for Homes and £2 10s. for Sanatoria, in addition to gifts of kind, such as clothing, toys, bread, etc.

Dec. 31.—The last day of 1901 there have come to us 94 contributions ranging from 1s. to £150, and including clothing, bulbs, bread, games, toys, sweets, all proclaiming anew our Father's faithfulness and His tender care for the fatherless children and the suffering and afflicted ones. Among the gifts there is one of £100 towards the "Colony of Mercy," from a lady in Edinburgh, who gave a donation towards it when it was first mentioned in our Report in 1895. She says, "I trust it will during the coming year become an accomplished fact." We are waiting on God for His guidance, and do not wish to take one step forward without His special leading. We have always felt that the money for any definite object being sent to us was a sure indication that the Master wished the work done, and although we might often shrink from the added burden and responsibility, we know that "all His biddings are enablings," and our place is to obey. There is no Home or Hospital in Scotland for Epileptics, and a class whose helpless condition so often drew out the Saviour's compassion when He was on earth must appeal to Him still and should to His followers also.

Jan. 1, 1902.—Another milestone which calls for praiseful remembrance of all the way by which our Father in Heaven has led us. May the year before us be one in which the Church of God will be so revived that every individual member will realize their responsibility to be a worker. There should be no idlers in the vineyard. God gives "to every man his work," and He expects us to make good use of the talents entrusted to us, whether these be many or few, whether they be for ministering to others in word or deed, or for holding up the hands of the workers by prayer and sympathy. We praise God for the diversity of gifts as evidenced in the true yokefellows who labour with us and for us.

New-Year's-day is always one of the red letter days in the Homes, and it is surely right when the sound of rejoicing is heard all over the world that the largest family in Scotland should be also the happiest, for are they not the special care of the Father of the fatherless who delights to shower His good gifts upon them. The day began with an extra breakfast consisting of ham and eggs, bread and butter and tea, instead of the usual porridge and sweet milk. There was at 12.30 a special dinner of turkey, roast beef, pie, potatoes, and plum pudding, then the great event of the day, the dismantling of the two immense Xmas trees and the ship's boat which was commandeered for the occasion. Every child was made the happy possessor of some of the fruit and freight, and in every case we tried to make it "just what I wanted." A real "soiree tea" preceded the evening gathering in the Church at which the children entertained themselves and the visitors with song and recitation and music. Then we unitedly joined in family worship thanking the giver of all good for making our cup to run over. The boys and girls from our City Homes joined the company at Bridge-of-Weir for the day, and our whole family was thus for once in the year all gathered together under one roof. The gifts to-day have amounted to £372 10s. 6d. for the Homes and £255 11s. for the Sanatoria.

Jan. 3.—From New Zealand where there are a few interested helpers, we have the following letter:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—Enclosed please find Money Order for £2 for your Orphan Homes, being a contribution from our "Young Helpers' League." I have been trying to teach the children of my congregation that it is more blessed to give than to receive, and we formed above League, each one joining it on his or her birthday, and giving a contribution as a thankoffering on their birthday, to the Lord's work. It would help us in this work and help our young friends if you could write a short note (or get one of your large family to do it), telling us how the Lord is prospering you. I have had the pleasure of meeting you and seeing something of your work both in Glasgow and at Bridge-of-Weir, while I was studying in Glasgow, and it is refreshing, even at this distance, to remember how the Lord has used and blessed you. That the Lord may continue to guide and bless you as you seek to feed His lambs, is the wish and prayer of—Yours, in the service of the same Lord.

Another friend in that distant colony forwarded £2 which came to hand yesterday, and one in Oregon whose thoughts often traverse the 7,000 miles between him and the home of his youth, added £2 10s. to our treasury. The grateful husband of one helped in the Sanatoria writes:

● DEAR SIR,—Kindly accept the enclosed £10 for Sanatoria and £1 for Orphan Homes as a first attempt to in some measure express my thankfulness to you for your goodness to my wife. From what I have learned of your noble efforts on behalf of suffering humanity personally, and by a perusal of your narrative of facts for year 1901, I shall consider it a privilege to be allowed to help you in your work in the future as the Lord shall enable me to do so. From Edinburgh comes 10s. as the donor's "first act in business this year, and as a thank-offering for past mercies"; £2 10s. comes from one who has "just finished the winding up of his business for the past year and finds he can spare a mite to help the good work."

Jan. 4.—From Hawick, £10, "for the children's needs," will help to provide for some from that district now in the Homes. "Fines for being late at the breakfast table," contribute 13s. 2d. to provide breakfasts for some needy ones; £10 from Galashiels; £1 10s. from Hull; 12s. from Kelso; 11s. from Aberdeen; £2 2s. from Leslie; £1 16s. 6d. from Stornoway; £5 from one who hoped to have been with us on New-Year's-day from Tarbert; £3 3s. from four children in Grangemouth, and many other gifts, amounting to £101 18s. 2d. reached us to-day.

Jan. 7.—From a mother, in memory of her dear little daughter who died this time last year, 10s. It will help to brighten the lot of some other little girl left motherless and fatherless to face the world. A dear young helper who is herself often in the furnace of affliction sends £12 12s., the proceeds of articles made by herself and sold and some gifts from friends. The cross she has to carry is a heavy one, but we feel sure it is made easier to bear by the thought that she is helping to carry the burdens of others, and that her ministry of suffering and patient endurance is working out God's purpose for her and those whose lives touch hers.

Jan. 9.—We are often cheered by letters from former members of our family circle who are now earning their own living and filling useful if humble positions among the world's workers. One sends 20s. to-day, and says, "I have now been over a year away from the Homes and I like my place. I am trusting in Jesus to help me to do everything just as He would have me to do it. I enclose £1, and you can use it in whichever way it is most needed. It is not much for such a large place, but I'm sure small gifts are accepted." Another writes:

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I am sure you will be thinking I never give any thought to the Homes, but I do, for I know how I was benefited by them. I know I wouldn't be what I am if I had not been there, and I am sure my sisters will turn out to be very good and any one who is under your care, and if not it is their own fault, for I know I have always followed in the same ways as I did the years I was at Bridge-of-Weir. It's always my idea to give to the Homes, and I would like to give something good whenever I can. Several times I went into a shop in Helensburgh, and at the door was a collection box. I never passed it, and I got some more of my friends in the Christian Endeavour to pay attention and they did. I am sure there was a fairly good collection made. I am in the Good Templar Lodge, and after I joined I got a good many others to join, and they are doing well to this day. I am just going to a meeting to deliver some tracts.

Jan. 10.—From Kirkcaldy the following is worthy of the Master's commendation, "She hath done what she could:"

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—The time has come round again for my annual subscription to the fund for the daily needs of your large family. The past year has been one of short time and small pay in the factory, but God has been so good to me, in giving me a whole year without an illness, that I cannot send less than my usual £1 as a thankoffering for so great a blessing. The little petticoat also is from myself, while the cosy bonnet is from an invalid aunt who does such articles to earn a shilling when she is able.

PHYSICAL DRILL—FRONT OF CENTRAL BUILDING.

We often marvel that many who have abundance of this world's goods do not seek to spend some of it on the suffering and needy in their own land, but it is also a marvel that so many give out of their poverty, and in straitened circumstances still find much to praise God for.

Jan. 11.—From Philadelphia, £2 1s. "for personal use or otherwise if you prefer." This has been placed to the Sanatoria, as we do not use money for ourselves unless it is definitely given for that purpose. Our friend says, "God bless you and all your great family, and give you to see the increase of God in still greater measure this year. How wondrously and beautifully He does work for you, but thou shalt see greater things than these." One who has had fellowship with us in giving from the early days of the work, writes:

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I enclose cheque for £5 for your work which, as the years go on, increases in every direction of usefulness. I never get so much satisfaction out of anything as the thought that I am permitted to help you even in this slight degree by sending you my little contribution. Yours is a glorious work, and God has been very good to you in letting you see it grow and prosper so well in your hands. The satisfaction of having old friends continue with us is ours, and their gifts and kind wishes often encourage us amid the difficulties and failures incidental to such a large undertaking.

Jan. 13.—From a Sunday School of 18 Scholars, and three teachers, £3, to be used for maintenance; from one grateful for the help given to an orphan girl in her time of need, £2. £100 has come to-day towards the proposed Sanatorium for men, £28 15s. 8½d. for the Homes, and £27 for the maintenance of the female Sanatoria.

Jan. 14.—From Ayrshire, "your share of prize money gained for sheep," £13; from friends in Tain, 2s. 6d. as a thankoffering for the Lord's goodness to them; from a Sabbath School near Callander, £1 2s.; from one of our old girls "wishing it was pounds instead of shillings," 10s.; from Alice, Willie, and Jessie, who frequently remember the needs, 10s.; 10s. from Glasgow with the following letter:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I have just been looking at that little girl's picture on the front of your book, and it made me think I would like to give Jesus my four shillings. It is all my very own savings, and I am pleased to give it up.—With fond love, I remain, another little girl.

Jan. 15.—A Glasgow Postman whose name and address are unknown to us, sends 10s., "a thankoffering to God for His kindness towards me during last year." A widow sends 5s., "a small thankoffering to God for fulfilled promise; your bread shall be given and your water shall be sure." A husband and wife send £12 for this year's maintenance of a little girl in memory of their own little one gone Home. A little boy, 11 years of age, in Cape Colony, forwards 25s., collected from friends with the help of his baby sister and brothers. There are no gifts for the Sanatoria to-day, but a Doctor writes: "It gives me great pleasure to tell you that Mrs. — has very greatly benefited by the treatment and that she feels herself quite equal to her household duties. One very great benefit of your Sanatorium is, that the patients come back strongly impressed with the benefits of free ventilation in their homes. This knowledge and practice among the poor will spread gradually, and so prevent many cases of consumption, that would otherwise develop. With many thanks for the great benefit you have done my patient."

Jan. 18.—Only £16 have come to-day in money, a half chest of tea, and large quantity of fancy biscuits are a welcome addition to our stores and our barrel of meal is not yet empty.

Jan. 20.—£187 5s. 11d to-day, making up for the deficiency of Saturday. The following letter from a rescued lad, rescued from surroundings which one cannot write about is most cheering to us workers:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I now write a few lines to let you know that I am well, hoping that when this reaches you it will find you the same. It is a long time since I wrote to you, but I am glad that I haven't forgotten you and I hope I never will; but when I received your New-Year's letter it kind of stirred me up to start a correspondence with you and keep in touch with you and your work. I was much pleased to get a copy of your annual report, thereby getting an idea of how the work is prospering. No doubt it is a joy and a pleasure to you to hear how your children are getting on over in this wonderful Dominion of ours. Well, the Scotch children are the best I come in contact with. We have several here from England, but the Scotch excel them by far. It seems too bad that the Ontario Government should pass such a law as the forbidding of Scotch children coming to Canada without a license, and yet their conduct and behaviour is far ahead of those who have been brought up in Canada; but it is to be hoped that it is all for the best, and we ought to trust that it is, for God says that all things work together for good to them that love Him. Well, as to myself, I must say that I am very thankful to my heavenly Father for all His mercies to me in the year that is gone, and it is my highest aim to get closer to Him each day. When I started the beginning of last year, it was with the determination of leading one soul to love Jesus and accept Him as their Saviour. but before the year closed I had the pleasure of leading six to know Him whom to know is life Eternal, and I am glad to say they are pressing onward and upward each day. This year I expect to do more for Him who has done so much for me. I guess I will have to close now, praying that God will bless you and your helpers in your grand and glorious work. Remember me to all, yours in the Master's service. Our prayers ascend for him and for many others known to us who are earnestly seeking to hasten the coming of the kingdom, and the doing of God's will on earth.

Jan. 22.—A grateful patient sends £2; a grateful girl, 10s.; a visitor left £1; a Sunday School contributes 23s.; a Missionary Society, £1; a Sabbath School, Stonehaven, sends £5; one in Rosehearty, 10s.; one in Rothesay, 20s.; one near Hamilton, 10s.; one in Montrose, £1 6s.; one in Dunoon, 10s.; one in Castle Kennedy, 6s.; Sabbath Evening Services at Dunragit, £1; Dunfermline Boys and Girls' Society, £2 10s., and a morning meeting in Airdrie, 10s. These gifts represent the sympathy and loving interest of many old as well as young helpers, and shew what a goodly sum results when the pennies are put together.

Jan. 27.—£20 from one who is now over 90 years of age, comes with a special message of cheer to us. Another aged friend nearing the end of earth's pilgrimage, sends 10s.

Jan. 28.—Two gifts of £100 each towards a male Sanatorium encourage us to hope that God will give us to see our heart's desire for that accomplished. Two grateful boys send 6s. "as a small return for some of the kindness you have shewn us." An old lady, 77 years of age, sends anonymously, 3 pairs useful stockings, and another now in her 95th year, sends £2, and tells us she is "getting frailer, and not able to knit the stockings as she used to do, but her interest in all your endeavours continues. She has been reading the life story, and it has given her much enjoyment." We thank God for the many dear aged friends who in the quiet of eventide, think of the workers who are bearing the burden and heat of the day, and seek to lighten the burdens by their sympathy and prayers and gifts.

Jan. 30.—Among the gifts to-day is an anonymous one of £5 from "Nan," as a thankoffering for a prosperous year, to help provide coals. Last year it took 1900 tons of coal and dross to supply our village, and with additional houses to heat up, and more machinery requiring steam, more will be required this year. A legacy of £2000 comes opportunely to-day, to pay the balance required for the new stables, which are now in course of erection. The demands of our growing village necessitated more horses to bring provisions, etc., from the station, and we will now have suitable premises to shelter them. During this month there have been added to our number 29 new cases, all of them coming under the only title that secures admission to the Homes—destitute and fatherless, except in one case where the father is at the front and a drunken grandmother so neglected the children that they were the picture of starvation. It has been our privilege to care for several families whose fathers have been fighting their country's battles, and some we know of will never return to claim their little ones, for death has claimed them, and their children are left as a legacy to the nation for whom the fathers have given their lives.

Among recent letters from our scattered family now in homes and with families of their own, is the following: "Dear Friends, this is the last night of the old year, and I have been thinking much of Bridge of Weir. I almost wish I was a girl again, and looking forward to the New Year's day there, but all things must have an end. While I cannot be there, I do thank God to-night for the years that were spent there, and while I live I will ever feel grateful for all Mr. Quarrier's kindness and patience with me. This has been a very trying year with us, but God has stood by us. My husband has worked like any labouring man on the Church, from foundation to finish, besides encouraging his people to have faith and trust, which was no easy matter. Just as soon as their prayers would be answered and any new trouble would arise, they were doubting again. He had also to preach three times on Sabbaths, besides his other duties. These were the times when Mr. Quarrier's wonderful faith was remembered, and he was strengthened to hold fast. We were taught new faith and confidence for time to come." As we think of her, we also thank God and take courage for she is truly a trophy of God's grace, and now filling a sphere of usefulness as the Pastor's wife in a country village across the Atlantic.

Feb. 3.—“A labouring man known to God,” sends 2s. from Greenock; a husband and wife send £1, which they wish to devote to the Lord, from the first of an increase to the income. May they realize in a special way the blessing that ever follows the keeping of God's commandments, one of which, “Honour the Lord with thy substance and with the firstfruits of thine increase,” is so often ignored even by God's own people. Another friend in Perthshire writes: “I have a small sum to offer for to be used to good purposes, and enclose a cheque for £5 for your noble work in hand for the needy." From one who has helped us in past years, and is now on his way to India on business, we have a letter posted at Aden and enclosing a cheque for £100, which in God's providence comes for to-day's supply.

Feb. 7.—£19 16s. yesterday, and £15 3s. to-day, are the amounts to hand, not all we want by any means, but sufficient with what is on hand to satisfy our needs and keep us trusting for more. The grateful sister of two orphans under our care, in sending a small gift says: "I am sorry I am not able to do more for your splendid Homes. May God's blessing rest on them, is my earnest prayer."

Feb. 10.—£100 from London; 9s. from a Sabbath School in Nairn; £1 1s. each from two Glasgow firms; £1 from a Sabbath School in Co. Angus; £2 from one in Paisley; £1 from another in Galashiels; £1 from Glasgow; also £1 from a young man who has had an increase of £10 to his salary, and 5s. from his younger brother; £1 1s. from Carlisle; £3 from Edinburgh; £1 from Pollokshields, with six pairs of stockings; from Parkhead a very useful parcel of clothing, dress pieces and shirting; and from Uddingston, £1, with the following letter:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—Just put the enclosed to any branch of the work you think most in need. We have kindly remembrance of you and the work in its different branches at the Orphan Homes of Scotland. May the Master who has filled your hands with service best, fill your heart with holy rest, and fill your life with praise. May the Lord grant you the desire of your heart, and save some from the power of that fell disease consumption.

Y. UR FELLOW LAB. URER.

Feb. 12.—Many anonymous gifts reach us during the year and gladden our hearts. We would gladly thank the donors but they are of those who "do good by stealth." A registered envelope with the Glasgow postmark, brought us to day a Bank of Scotland note for £20, with merely the instructions, "Please use the enclosed thus—£5 for Orphan Children, £10 for Women's Sanatoria, and £5 for Men's." "Clutha Bakery Boys," contribute 2s. 6d., and a Glasgow firm sends an "annual subscription" of £3 3s. for the Homes, and the same amount for the Sanatoria.

Feb. 13.—One of our girls writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—It is now a year since I left the Homes for my situation, and I have been thinking how wonderfully the Lord has led me since I became an orphan. I can truly say that the Lord has proved Himself to be a Father to the fatherless in my case. I shall never forget the happy days I spent in the Bridge-of-Weir. I enclose a postal order for 8s., hoping you will accept it as a thankoffering for all you have done for me. May the Lord bless you and give you strength to carry on the work in which you have done so much good. I now close my letter, hoping it will find you all well as it leaves me well. From your grateful girl.

Another who has recently gone to her first situation says, "I must thank you for the splendid box and clothing you provided me with. I must also thank you for all your kindness to me during the years I was with you. I cannot thank you enough." It is always a pleasure to us when those who leave the sheltering Home nest, write to tell us of their welfare and success, and also of their difficulties, and we are thus able to counsel and help them, while at the same time we constantly remember them at the throne of grace, and pray that God's covering wings may shield them from the evil in the world.

Feb. 15.—Only £7 11s. for the Homes to-day, but the welcome gift of £100 for the Sanatoria leads us to thank God anew. The donor writes:—

DEAR SIR,—As so many fall victims to this fell disease, might I suggest that you bring the following view of the case under the notice of Mr. Andrew Carnegie, viz., that, as it requires living people to enjoy the benefits of Free Libraries and sweet music, it would be a fitting crown to his munificence to his native land by giving a Free Sanatorium as well, and by so doing enhance greatly the value of his other gifts.

Nothing would rejoice us more than that some wealthy Scotsman would provide Sanatoria for the working men upon whom consumption has laid its heavy hand. As we see the havoc and desolation wrought by it in families we wonder that those who have wealth can withhold it. Meantime we are shewing what can be done and trying to educate the public as to the need for large and widespread effort to cope with the disease.

Feb. 18.—£300 for the Homes and £100 for the Sanatoria from one friend, with £5 6s. 7d. for the Homes and £4 3s. for Sanatoria from others, give us a full purse to-day. We thank God many times that He gives us daily supplies and keeps us looking to Him to spread our table day by day. He feeds us with food convenient for us, and has never suffered us to be tempted above what we were able to bear.

Feb. 22.—£5 from a helper, who writes: "This cold weather makes me think of your large family, and I am glad once more to be able to send a little contribution to help you to feed and clothe these poor wee waifs who are being made into good citizens of Britain and her colonies as well as being prepared for citizenship in Heaven. That is the best of it." It is our earnest desire and constant prayer that this may be the ultimate result of all our efforts. Letters like the following received to-day from one of our old boys, now a preacher of the Gospel, bring special heartening to us:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—My wife and I have been living in Bridge-of-Weir for the last few days. Reading your book only adds to our desire to see your village of cottages. We have talked many times of doing something for the work, but we find so much right here to do in the way of the demands of the Church and our own private Home Mission, that we have not been able to do as our hearts would lead us to. This you seem to understand. What changes since I first knew Bridge of Weir! It does not seem possible that it is twenty years since then and eleven years since I saw you in Brockville. But it must be true when I see the changes that have taken place which time alone can work, and, as your biographer says, "God is never in a hurry." They certainly must have been twenty years of fullness. When speaking of your work to some people they stare at me and appear to discredit what God can accomplish through one man in answer to prayer. If there is one thing more than another I have received in connection with your work it is this "Heritage of Faith," and I believe there are a great many of your boys and girls who can say the same, and while we may never be able to repay you we can pass it on. When starting out in life I had but one purpose in whatever work God called me to, and that was, "Recognising what was done for me, I would live to make the world the better for my living in it." My heart was set on being a physician that I might accumulate money and relieve suffering humanity. But God has called me into the more direct work of building up the kingdom of Jesus Christ, and while I have not been able to accomplish all I had purposed I know I have been honoured of God in doing part. Your Sanatoria work I believe is to prove as great, and possibly a greater, blessing to Scotland than the work among the children. My field is a very busy one, having three appointments and a territory about sixteen miles long and eight miles wide. On Sunday I travel twenty-three miles and preach three times, getting home about midnight. During the year I drive about 5000 miles. This time of the year it is hard travelling. To-morrow I have a wedding here at the Parsonage, and another on Saturday, about five miles from here. If there is anything I can do for the work I shall be most happy in doing it. With kindest remembrance and prayers for you and the work, and again thanking you, most kindly yours

Feb. 28.—The last day of another month finds us with every obligation met and sufficient on hand for another month. The donations during December, January, and February usually exceed any other month in the year, and one is tempted to ask why it is that the grace of liberality flows more freely then than at any other season of the year. The work has to be done, the children have to be fed, and the obligations have to be met all the year round.

March 1.—2s. 6d. from "Sincere Friend," who says: "You are saving lives from misery and sin, and giving them a good start to earn an honest living. I know one who was in the Homes, and he refers to that time with great pleasure." A Bible Class teacher sends 106 very useful articles of clothing, and writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—I am sending you on our usual box from my girls present, and from some of my older girls that have now left the Bible Class in the South Parish Church, Aberdeen. It is nice when the old members remember the box. One married member has got two of her children to do a pair of cuffs each and some worsted balls for some of your little children to play with. Many thanks for the report you kindly sent me, I was glad to see by it you were in better health, but you have got so much to think about that it must keep your mind very anxious at times. May God bless you in the future as in the past in all your work for Him.

Here we have the seed sown by the teacher bearing fruit in the lives of her scholars' children, the fulfilling of the promise, "Cast thy bread upon the waters and thou shalt find it after many days"

March 6.—At our Christian Endeavour meeting this evening we had a farewell message from one of our number who leaves us to-morrow for mission work at Blantyre, in British Central Africa. She has for some years had the desire to give herself to such work, and now the call has come for her to go. We feel sure the Master will use her to extend His kingdom in that dark continent. Many prayers for her and the mission will continually ascend from our village, and "Though sundered far, by faith we'll meet around one common mercy seat."

MISS JANE RICHARDSON, MISSIONARY AT BLANTYRE.

March 7.—From Alexandria, 7s. 6d.; from Fenwick, "for behoof of your big family," £1; from Edinburgh, £1; from a Glasgow Sabbath School, £1 11s. 10d.; from Coatbridge, £1; an old worker sends £1 2s.; a friend in Orkney forwards £2 2s. 6d. "towards a bed in Men's Sanatorium in memory of a dear brother who died in consumption." From Morayshire we have a useful gift of part of a drapery stock, consisting of two Paisley shawls, remnants of cloth for dresses and jackets, cotton, muslin, ribbons, buttons, etc., all helping to lessen our bills and to fill up some of the many requirements of our always needy family. A minister in Canada writes: "One of your boys, now grown a fine young man, is a respected member of my church. I am very pleased with him, and every one who knows him is. He has a very frank nature, and has always been of a devout mind, and makes and keeps friends wherever he goes. I believe his brother is like him in this respect, and they are fond of each other. I believe it is a pleasure that you often have to hear your boys well spoken of. It must be very gratifying to you. I have met many of them besides James, and never once a bad lad." This voluntary testimony from a minister in a large town around which hundreds of our boys have been placed is most gratifying. Scattered over Canada there are hundreds who, having received in the Homes "the chance" which was denied them elsewhere, are now supporting themselves and those dependent on them as respectable citizens of the great Dominion. The following is from a lad who was in the Home 24 years ago:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—You will likely be surprised to receive a letter from me. I have no excuse to give for not writing, other than my carelessness. I have been away for the past three years in that part of Ontario called New Ontario. I went there on speculation, just to see what the country was like and get experience, which I got. I went to work on the construction of the Canadian Northern Railway, which is now running between Port Arthur, Ont., and Winnipeg, Man. When I got there I found myself away in the woods and mountains, some thirty miles from the nearest railway station, and about forty miles from a post office, so you may judge the condition of things about the place. I went to work at once with the pick and shovel and worked steadily for five weeks when I was sent some twenty miles farther to act as timekeeper and clerk in a camp of seventy-five men. I held that position until last March, when I took charge of a supply store near the works. I am at present travelling for a Life Insurance Co., and am doing very well, considering the time of year, as money business is very dull here in winter. I met my brother in church yesterday. He is quite well, but is commencing to look old, and is getting quite bald. He says I have enough hair for both of us. He joins me in sending love and best wishes to both you and Mrs. Quarrier.

March 10.—One who is evidently "a Scot abroad" writes from S. Africa enclosing £20:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—Two or three pounds for the Glesca' bairns. I was thinking one night of sending something to Dr. Barnardo, but the thought struck me, Why not Quarrier? Why not "gie oor ain fish guts to oor ain sea-maws." Praying God's blessing on your noble work. "Ane whom God has blessed."

A Scotchman at home writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—During a lecture on the work last night, God told me to send you this cheque to help the work. I was specially pleased to see you have a ship in connection with the Homes; as I spent some time of my life at sea and my heart still warms with the old love. God blesses me in business life very much, and it is with a very grateful heart I enclose you this small amount, praying that our dear Lord may bless the work more and more, and use it as a means of winning these young lives to Himself. Yours in His service. Alice, Willie, and Jessie send again 10s.; Margaret sends 5s.; "The Trio," Kilmalcolm, send 5s. also, and thus from far and near God directs through various channels the supply for His hungry bairns.

March 13.—A good friend in Port-Glasgow has been thinking of us to good effect, and has to-day forwarded two most acceptable parcels of boys' clothing, caps, flannelette, etc., all of which we can put to good use. A Sabbath School in Maybole contributes 12s., and another in Aberdeenshire the same amount. One in Stranraer, which has for many years had fellowship with us, in giving now sends £2 5s.; from one in Galashiels we have £1; and from an old helper in Dundee £5.

March 14.—Welcome gifts amounting to £59 2s. for the Sanatoria and the following letter from a patient were specially cheering to-day:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—I send you this note of thanks for the four months' stay I had at your Sanatoria, Bridge of Weir. I must say I felt very weak when I first went there, but the good it has done me I can't really express my thanks to you for. I have been at home for some months now, and feeling quite strong again. I have not lost an ounce of my weight since I left the Sanatoria. I'm sure you need great encouragement in the great work which you have taken upon your shoulders for the good of Scotland's poor sufferers, and may the grace of God still help you further on. If ever it is in my power to help in this I will be too happy to do it.

March 15.—"From an old man who remembers you and your work every day at the Throne of Grace, and requests you to pray for him and all his household," £1. We trust many of the "Lord's remembrancers" do as this friend does, for prayer moves the Hand that moves the world. Many times a day do we thank God for the practical sympathy and fellowship of His people, and pray that He may give them back the good measure pressed down and running over.

March 17.—From Dunfermline, £1; from Natal, £1 for Homes and £1 for Sanatoria, and an anonymous 2s. 6d. "from the Lord" are the only gifts in money to-day. A useful parcel of garments, etc., from Kilmalcolm, and 15 pairs of stockings, just the size we were needing, from an unknown friend.

March 18.—"A working man with a large family and only working five days a week" sends 5s. to add a brick to the Consumption Sanatoria, and from a Y.W.C.A. we have £12 in recognition of the fact that a young woman from the same district is in the Sanatoria to help to defray cost of her maintenance. May the example of this working man and this Y.W.C.A. stimulate others to go and do likewise that soon there may be abundant provision for the help of both male and female sufferers from the dreaded disease of consumption. One of our girls in Canada writes:—

DEAR MR. AND MRS. QUARRIER. — You will be surprised, no doubt, to hear from me as it is so long since I have written to you. But I confess I deeply regret that I have neglected so great a duty, for, indeed, I owe you a great debt of gratitude for your kindness and thoughtfulness ever since I left the home of my birth and came to Canada. You that has so many duties to perform in looking after so large a number of children, and other cares. I must say that I look forward to the time of hearing from you every Xmas just as eagerly as we all do for the other good gifts which Christmas brings, and this unwavering sincerity of you and Mrs. Quarrier has been the means of my now writing you. It makes me feel ashamed of myself. I was but a child of six years when I came to Canada, now I am a young woman twenty-four years of age. I have a great many things to regret of in my past life to look back upon, and think how much I have wasted in thoughtlessness and seeking after the pleasure of the world until I was twenty years old. But since that time my life has been different. I try to serve my Master faithfully, but you know the flesh is weak, and oftentimes the best will fail. I have been a member of the Presbyterian Church for four years next June; last year I took a class of six little boys to teach in Sunday school, I am very much attached to them. I also play the organ in our church, have played off and on for six years, but have played now constantly for four. I enjoy the work very much, as it is in the service of Him who died on the Cross for sinners such as we are. My adopted father and mother are both living and enjoying very good health. I hope, if ever I am in a good financial position, I will visit the land of my birth. There is nothing I desire more.

March 21.—£4 "collected in 3d. pieces" from Broughty Ferry. £10 as an acknowledgment of benefit received in the Sanatoria, and other gifts amounting to £58 18s. 6d., meet our expenses for this day. In addition, we have 250 articles of very useful clothing, 58 pairs stockings, etc., contributed by ladies of a Congregational Church in Dunfermline.

March 24.—The husband of one of the Sanatoria patients sends £1 and says: "It is with a feeling of deep gratitude I tender you my sincere thanks for the improvement that has taken place in my wife. I am sure your Sanatoria work must be a source of great pleasure to you when you think of the homes you are enabled to make brighter. It must give you encouragement to go forward in your good work."

March 29.—One of our orphan girls sends 10s. and says: "I hope to be able to send more soon, but what I send will not make up for what was done for me, and I never will forget what was done for me in the Homes." A young friend in forwarding 6s. writes:—

DEAR SIR,—Please accept the enclosed six shillings in stamps as a donation towards the upkeep of your "large family." This is my first pay, and I am only sorry that for a few months I only receive half pay. David Livingstone's mother treasured his first pay in a handkerchief. But rather than hide mine "in a napkin," with my father and mother's consent I am trading with it to what I believe to be the best advantage. I only wish that the blessing that attended the loaves and fishes may be attendant on this gift, which, though small, is given with many wishes for the prosperity of the work in which you are engaged.

April 1.—From a valued helper visiting in Rome comes a birthday gift of £50 for the Sanatoria. From the S.G.F.S. and friends in Biggar £5, and 246 articles of clothing, with three complete outfits for boys, from our old "young helper," Sandy; from Catrine a box with 29 hats and a quantity of useful garments; from Prestwick a jacket; from Crieff, 16 garments; from a Y.W. Guild in West Lothian, 30 articles of clothing; from Errol Y.W.C.A. a large box of very acceptable garments. These welcome gifts from many willing workers have helped to replenish our store which the demands of the past winter have made a heavy drain upon.

April 4.—From the uncle of an orphan boy helped, £3; from Carlisle, £20; from a Sabbath School in Perth, 15s.; from a minister who remembers the work and workers daily in prayer, 5s.; from another minister, £3, the gift of a member of his congregation who desires to remain unknown; from Gourrock, £1; from Coatbridge, £1 10s.; from Ballater, 12s. 9d.; from Broxburn, 10s.; and from Kilmarnock and Edinburgh useful parcels of socks and clothing.

April 12.—From Bristol, for blessings received, 10s.; from "a follower," 4s.; Anonymous, £1 for Sanatorium and £1 for Epileptic Home; from a Poor Mission School in Edinburgh, 10s.; from Roseneath Y.W.C.A., £1 for female consumptives; from a Sabbath School in Paisley, £1 16s. for Homes and £1 1s. for male consumptives; from Edinburgh, £5 for Sanatoria. The gifts to-day, though not numerous or large, embrace all the departments of the work, and bid us anew to go forward even though the difficulties in our way seem as impassable as did the Red Sea to the Children of Israel. The same God who made a way for them still lives, and He is our Deliverer.

April 16.—One who has for many years helped the work forwards £20. A Bible Class in Clackmannan sends £2 for the Sanatoria "seeing two or three from this community have derived benefit from them." From Greenock, 5s., "reward for finding a brooch;" from Dundee comes £10, and from Bangor 30s. 6d., and the following from Edinburgh:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I send you a cheque for four pounds for your Orphan Homes. I send it as a thank offering for many mercies, but if I sent for every mercy we receive, it would be a daily cheque. Besides my own very warm interest in your work, it is always associated in my mind with the dear old nurse who brought up all our children. In her last years when crippled with rheumatism, her poor hands still tried to knit little garments for Mr. Quarrier's bairns.

The steadfastness of old helpers is a continual source of encouragement to us, and when we hear how one and another seek to extend the knowledge of the work and to enlist others in the service we can but praise Him who bids them "go work in His vineyard." Several cheering letters from children and patients once under our care have come to hand this week, some with money and some with heartfelt thanks. The following suffices to shew that still one in ten returns to give glory to God:—

MR. QUARRIER—DEAR SIR,—In accordance with a promise made when I left the Sanatoria I now take the most sincere pleasure of writing to you to express my gratitude for all the care and kindness and consideration shown to me during my stay there—a long stay of 25 weeks, or nearly that time; also, and chiefly, for the great benefit which I have received during my stay. I need not try to describe to you what my feelings were when the doctor informed me that my lungs are all right now. I think, dear sir, you will not fail to understand better than I can tell how I felt. It is no mean recompense for having, by God's help, exercised the patience of faith throughout one winter, severe though it has been, after having suffered for over two years, and out of that time suffering months at a stretch of almost unbearable pain and weakness. I am like the disciples when they saw the Lord after He had risen from the dead. Nay, I am more like Lazarus when he was raised from the dead. Like him, I feel that I have left the dark regions of no hope for the body, and have stepped out into life once more—a new life to be lived in a new resurrected body to His praise and glory. Dear sir, if my joy and reward are so full, how much more so will yours be in that day when every man shall receive according to the deeds done in the body; and now, when you look upon the fruit and the outcome of your labour and faith and love to and for God the Creator and your fellow creatures, who but for the grace of God manifested in you would have had to go on suffering and dying without hope of remedy? How can I thank you, dear sir, for all that you have done for me? I know how I would thank you if I could, but I am sorry that the Lord has not allowed me any substance or any of His goods to give to those who could use them to His glory in a way that I could not. With sincere regards to Mrs. Quarrier and yourself, yours in Christ, the Great Physician.

April 18.—£50 from Largs for the Sanatoria will enable us to provide for some of the needy applying. £40 from money left by an only son who died last October, and who was greatly interested in the work, is sent by his mother to help orphan boys.

April 22.—A grateful mother of a boy under our care sends £2, and other gifts amounting to £10 10s. are to hand to-day. At the urgent request of friends in Greenock I addressed a meeting in the Town Hall there, advocating the prevention and cure of consumption. Our band and a number of the boys and girls accompanied me, and contributed largely to the success of the gathering. The proceeds, which amounted to £58, were given to the funds of the Railway Benevolent Institution. It is many years since I was able for the strain of such an effort, and we thank God for renewed strength which permitted me to carry it through.

April 28.—Only £7 1s. to-day. £1 is from a mother sorrowing for the loss of her eldest son through the war in South Africa. How many mothers and wives and children have had to bear the burden and the sorrow that this terrible conflict has brought? God grant it may soon cease, and that the time may speedily come when nations will not settle their disputes by a resort to arms.

May 3.—The first Saturday in May is always a gala day in the Children's City, and this year was no exception. The morning was devoted to necessary duties, but after an early dinner the contingent from each cottage wended its way to "The Park," as the boys' playground is called. There curds and biscuits were partaken of, followed by games of various kinds and contests for which prizes were given. Then a procession was formed, and headed by the boys' band they marched through the grounds to the Sanatoria, where the patients were entertained by the beautiful sight of the great company of happy children and the cheering strains of the band. After the march back to the village all returned to their Homes delighted with the celebration. In gifts there have come to us to-day a birthday offering of £5 for Homes and £5 for Sanatoria; 5s. from a minister, who frequently remembers us in gifts, and prays that the work may be a means of strengthening the faith and deepening the prayerfulness of millions; from an aged friend in Dundee, £1; from a Bible Class in Ayr, £1; from a Welshman visiting the Homes, £1; from one who gives a percentage on tea sold, £4; from one of our girls, "a small token of thanks for kindness received," 4s.; from an old helper in Aberdeen, £1; and 1s. from a sister.

May 7.—In addition to gifts in money we have received to-day a truck load of potatoes from Haddington, which helps to lessen our expenses for that article of diet of which we use about 95 tons annually. The donor writes: "It gives me much pleasure to aid you to this small extent in your very laudable effort to rescue those unfortunate little ones who would otherwise grow up a pest to society. May the Lord prosper you in your work, and put it into the hearts of those who have to give for those who have not of this world's goods."

THE CHILDREN VISITING NEW STABLES ON MAY DAY.

May 10.—This has been a trying week, as the case against Kilmalcolm School Board for refusing to carry out their statutory obligation to educate the children in the Homes was before the Court of Session yesterday and the day before. We hope for a righteous and decisive judgment, and are seeking grace to wait patiently for the deliverance which is sure to come some day. God will yet vindicate the claims of the fatherless and the oppressed. "Their Redeemer is strong; He will plead their cause."

May 13.—Amid the trials we are cheered by the many messages of loving sympathy that have reached us along with gifts in money and clothing and provisions to-day. We have from Bohemia, £5 5s.; from Ibrox, £5; from Perth, £1 0s. 7d.; from North Berwick, £8 10s.; from Crieff, 9s. 11d.; from Kirkcaldy, £6 10s.; from Cleland, 10s.; from Glasgow, £10; from Banchory, £5; from Edinburgh, £1; from Girvan,

10s.; from Leith, £2 16s.; from Dundee, £2 10s.; from Dunfermline, 5s.; and the following from Essex :—

MY DEAR MR. QUARRIER.—This morning at prayers we asked that you and all the Homes would be abundantly blessed, not only for this day but for all similar, whilst our good God gives you health and strength to carry forward the noble work. I have just turned to the album to have a look at you and your dear wife, and then I looked at my 1894 Scotch Holiday Diary, and re-reading the arrangements of that memorable Wednesday 5th September, 12 o'clock, Sir William Arrol laying the memorial stone of first Consumptive Hospital. This will never leave our memory or vision, and can only add "Thank God" for all that happened then and since. I doubt not the No. 44 Farm House, which was the last number, is a long way behind, and from your report (which is much looked forward to as the time comes round to receive it), I gather that a host has been done. I am sending you along 20s.—I only wish it were much more—yet fully realize that our loving Father will never let you run short of all things to carry forward His cause.

May 15.—The payment of a legacy of £1500 left by the dear friend who built No. 29 Home some years ago, and who ever took a practical interest in the work is made to-day. Her kindly thought of the needs meets us anew in the legacy, which will make good what is required for alterations at our stores and additions to our poultry farm. As one friend after another falls out of their earthly service and enters on the rest above we learn to lean more on our eternal, unchangeable Friend, who says : "Lo, I am with you always."

May 17.—From Musselburgh a daughter forwards £2, her mother's last subscription to the Homes ere she entered on her rest above after a long weary illness borne with great patience. That she was able in her own weakness and pain to think of and plan for the needs of others is cause for thanksgiving to God. One of our old girls sends £1 "to aid another one," and she adds : "I shall feel grateful to you all my life." It is one of the rewards of our labour that those we have been the means of helping seek in their own sphere to pass on the kindnesses they have received. That all of them may know Jesus as a personal Saviour and witness for Him in word and deed is our constant prayer.

May 20.—A dear old friend sends her half-yearly gift of 7s. 6d., and writes : "The Lord reigns is a grand thought when things look black. You are just one of His workmen, and He will clear up for you to go on." How often we fall back on the thought that God is over all, in the successes and in the seeming failures, when He showers His gifts on us, and when He withholds what we most desire, His infinite knowledge of the end of the purpose He has in view for us, ensures that His way is always best, and surely we can trust Him even in the darkest day. A grateful patient writes :—

DEAR SIR.—I take this opportunity of returning my sincerest thanks for all the kindness and attention, which I received whilst at the Sanatorium. I also enclose £2 as a donation, and I am only sorry that the sum is so small, but no one will understand better than you, that lingering illness is a severe drain upon one's income. However, God never took away anything, but He returns something, and if we receive patience to bear our earthly cross, and have the surety of a higher life, that is all we need. With all good wishes to those who in any way aid in the work at the Sanatoria.

May 24.—To-day's papers brought us the news that Lord Low had dismissed our case in the Court of Session on the ground that the fathers and mothers in charge of each Home had no title to sue, and that the question was not one for the Court to decide, but for the Education Department. It is impossible for us to accept that view of the matter, and an appeal will be made to the Inner Courts. Alongside of this disappointment we were cheered by many gifts, amounting to £249 6s., for the Homes and Sanatoria, so that while one burden of anxiety is upon us our Father liberally supplies "the daily bread," and His sufficient grace enables us to bear the burdens and trials that come to us through "unreasonable men."

May 31.—The last day of the month finds us with sufficient on hand after meeting every obligation to provide for the current expenses of about three weeks ahead. For this we give thanks, as past experience shews that gifts do not come so plentifully in the summer months. 29 new children have been admitted during the month. It is a true saying, "The poor ye have always with you," and it is our great joy to have an open door and the means to help every really destitute child that comes to us.

June 1.—This Sabbath day over the whole Empire thanksgiving is ascending to God that the war in South Africa is over. We pray that the peace proclaimed yesterday may be a lasting one, and that wisdom may be given to the Government to deal with the problems that must be solved and settled ere the pacification of the new colonies can be assured.

June 2.—Amid the rejoicings over the news from South Africa our needs are not forgotten, and from various sources there have reached us £145 15s. 8d. for the Homes and £4 for the Sanatoria. By the receipt of a letter from one of our boys in Canada we are carried back in memory to an incident of thirty years ago when the Homes were just beginning. A well-known and devoted Bible woman who laboured in the High Street, Glasgow, brought to us a family of three children—two boys, 11 and 4, and a girl of 9. They were in rags and dirt and so emaciated, starvation was written on their faces. Their mother had died two years before, and the father was in ill-health, and soon afterwards passed away. The little girl lingered for a year, but disease had gone too far, and notwithstanding the loving care that was shewn her she was taken also. She left behind a bright testimony of child-like trust in the Lord Jesus, of whom she first learned in the Home. In 1874 the two boys were sent to Canada, and the following letter from the younger now speaks for itself. Both lads bear good characters, and have done well, so that for the comparatively small outlay of two years' residence in the Homes and the passage and outfit to Canada two lives have been saved from early death and made into useful self-respecting and self-supporting citizens of our great colony :—

MR. QUARRIER—DEAR FRIEND.—I received your letter of November 7th, 1901, and I must say that I have been slow in answering it, but as the old saying is, better late than never. You state in your letter that you remember both Andrew and me. That is something I cannot say, your name is quite familiar to me but anything more seems like a dream to me. In regard to my welfare I will say that I have got through the battle of life with success so far. I have taken to myself a partner for life, we were married on the 29th of March, 1898. We have a nice little home of 50 acres of land, good house and barn and splendid soil, in a good old Scotch settlement. Our stock consists of six milk cows, one span of horses, some young cattle, hogs, and implements of all kinds to work with. I have had one letter from my brother, and was glad to hear that he and his are all well and comfortable. We have now a bright little baby boy, one year old on 23rd of last March, just beginning to walk and talk, we named him after my brother in the old land. We have also news this week that one of our lads, who is at college with a view to being a minister of the Gospel, is now able to write B.A. after his name. This is creditable to himself, as he has had to push his own way and maintain himself while gaining an education to fit him for definite work for God.

June 7.—The Coronation, to which so many are looking forward with rejoicing, has been on our minds also, and to-day an "anonymous" gift of £50 has been sent to us to be used for the celebration in our village.

Once more we thank God for the thoughtful kindness of His people, who see that the children not only have "daily bread," but send the where-withal to give them some of the sweets and treats also.

June 12.—From Edinburgh £12 10s. come from one "who prays that the children may be blessed not only for this life but for life everlasting." This is our constant aim, and we feel that the prayers ascending on the children's behalf are abundantly answered. £5 of our friend's gift is a thankoffering for peace in South Africa—the only sum that has been sent to us so designated.

June 17.—£63 2s. 10d. for the Homes and £20 for the Sanatoria have come to hand to-day; £18 "in memory of one who loved your cause;" and quite a number of the gifts to provide a Coronation treat for the children.

June 19.—To-day it has been our sad duty to commit to the grave all that remains of one who for twenty years has been our true yoke-fellow in the work—Mr. John M'Murray. He will be greatly missed by all in the village, but he has left behind him the memory of a life spent for God in striving to help others. His faithful, willing service, often given when his frail body might have been a reasonable excuse for others doing the work, has left its impress on all of us who accompanied with him, and on the boys who were under his care. Our sympathies go out specially to his aged mother, now in her 83rd year, and to his widow and sister and brothers. The memory of the just is blessed.

June 21.—An old friend called at our City Home to-day and handed me £250—an unexpected gift—given in fulfilment of an offer made to us some years ago of land in the United States, which I was then unable to accept. Now he has sold the land, and this is the proceeds. It comes with a special message of cheer, and calls for thanksgiving to Him who moves hearts to do His bidding.

June 24.—The tidings of the serious illness of His Majesty the King has come upon the nation in the height of its rejoicing. We feel that it is God's voice bidding us hush the tumult, and hear what He has to say to us. May we as a nation be wise in the day of our visitation and know that the Lord is God, and "by Him kings rule."

June 30.—Hopeful news of the King's restoration having reached us, part of our programme for the children's celebration was carried out on the 26th, when every child partook of special breakfast of tea, egg, roll and butter, and a dinner of pie, potatoes, and plum pudding, followed by the rare treat of some lemonade. Special tea was also provided, but the games and prize-giving were postponed. To-night the bonfire was lit, and fireworks sent off to the great enjoyment of the little folks.

July 1.—The following letter from one of our lads is worthy of notice. He has been "enduring hardness" in his efforts to educate himself, and a lady hearing of his struggle sent us £1 to forward to him. This is the money he refers to in his letter. His perseverance and determination to succeed are most commendable:—

MY DEAR FRIEND,—Though we don't often write you, yet you are not forgotten. I should now be in a position to help you were it not for the University expenses, which make me grind hard, and yet in three or four years God will let me thank you as I would like to do in a practical way. As I look over my life I must say, "God works in a mysterious way," for at different points of my life I have been turned from evil, and almost forced into the path I am now treading, and I shudder as I think how near I came to falling, and thank God for placing me thus far safely on my way through life, and so long as He wills it I will be the medium of strength to others. My life's ambition has been the ministry. I now think of becoming a foreign missionary, for I believe we have plenty of men to stay at home. I am now placed on a mission field, and I have two small churches and one schoolhouse to preach in; then, through the week I do some pioneer work, besides my study, so you see I'm busy enough, have the best health possible, and so long as I have that I can get whatever else I want, or need. I was greatly surprised to hear from you, knowing the ever-increasing numbers you have to keep track of, and this the more so as I have not written you for so long. I would naturally have thought that having seen us once started you would let each man "hoe his own row." To receive five dollars through you, and you with so many calls for money, is beyond my understanding, and I appreciate it accordingly. Now I have seen many a close pinch, and to get out of them I have done many curious things, but tell the boys and girls from me to first set the goal, and then, even if they haven't a cent, they'll get there; for such was my case, and as each goal was reached I pitched my eye on another and greater, and I hope in two years to finish my degree. What grieves me is that I have no money to spend, and I see so many needy ones, and then I think of how you helped me at one time, and I am helpless to pass it on. Tell the lady I thank her from the bottom of my soul; tell her it made me glad to get the five dollars, and I will see that at least five other people shall also smile about it, and thank the giver, for I'll tell them a lady told me to use the money, so she has made six glad. I may not use it for myself, for that would only teach me to lean, while I am able to stand alone. I shall, later, send a report of what the five dollars did. I consider that she has given me one of the greatest treats she could possibly have given me. Remember me to everybody, and especially to Mr. and Mrs. Paterson, of No. 1 Cottage. I often think of the time when I was there, how Mrs. Quarrier used to come and read us some story on Sunday afternoon, some of which I never forgot. Good-bye, and I'll always pray and labour for God's great work in the Orphan Homes of Scotland. From one who is ever grateful.

A sympathiser who regularly contributes towards the work writes: "I am remembering you in your struggle with the School Board in prayer daily. When we send money to you we do not mean to relieve the ratepayers of Kilmalcolm. We have our own school rates to pay. We want to feed the orphans and clothe the naked. Until you have won I mean to go on praying for you. The Lord in the end will make the righteous cause to prosper." We feel sure there must be many like this brother upholding our hands in the midst of the battle. "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." How much we shall not know until the Master comes to reckon with His servants.

July 2.—G. M. R. in Greenock sends 15s. towards the Male Sanatoria, 10s. comes from a frequent helper in Crieff, £1 from "a son in Natal who when a little fellow used to visit the Homes with his father." B. B. sends £1 for Homes and £1 for Sanatoria. An envelope post-marked Wishaw brings 2s. 6d. from one who, though anonymous, often ministers to our necessities. £5 comes from Liverpool, £1 from Pollokshields, 10s. from "a worm," 10s. from Edinburgh, £2 2s. from Airdrie, £1 from Leith, 10s. from Kilsyth, £1 from London, £10 from Edinburgh, and £20 from a Glasgow firm.

July 14.—Among to-day's gifts is a cheque for £10 5s. 3d. from Montrose, one for £5 from Montreal, another from a husband and wife for £7, and from Liverpool from "a Scotchman and son of one whose heart was in similar work," £5. This week another break has taken place in our ranks by the death of Miss Agnes Miller who has for ten years been a co-worker with her sister in the Mitchell Home. She had for a long time been in failing health, but took a real interest in the children under her sister's care, and in many ways exerted an influence upon them which will go with them through life. Her triumphant death and her testimony, as she passed through the valley of the shadow, will not soon be forgotten by those who were with her.

July 17.—£10 10s. towards the proposed Colony of Mercy comes to-day from a helper, who writes: "It will, I am sure, be a good day for many people when that can be started, as so little seems at present being done for the most heavily afflicted people of all. Wishing you success in your undertaking." We have to-day offered £9600 for land which seems highly suitable for the Colony—the money to be paid in November if certain arrangements can be carried through. We take this gift as God's seal to the step we have taken to-day in faith, believing that He will supply the whole of the large sum required for the land, and also send money for buildings.

July 18.—Of the £17 17s. 6d., which is to-day's provision, 5s. comes with the following letter, from one of many in this country now with families and homes of their own, and who sometimes think of the old Home that gave them the helping hand upwards and the chance that was denied them elsewhere:—

MR. QUARRIER—DEAR SIR,—I had the privilege of visiting your Home yesterday afternoon. But was disappointed to find you were away from home. I am one of your old 1887 boys. And I can assure you it was like coming home again after 15 years' absence to be within your gates. I have to give my thanks to Mr. M Fadzean and Mr. Paterson for their kind welcome and attention in showing me through the grounds and Homes. You have made great progress since I left. May your progress be greater still. It is, and shall be, my wish and prayer that the Lord shall reward you with His richest blessing for the good you have done to orphans like me. I would be very pleased to meet you at any occasion in Glasgow if your time would permit. I am getting on first-class. Married, with one girl, six and a half years of age. And far and above all, always trusting in Jesus—what I was taught when a boy in the Orphan Homes. A little help to the Lord's work. 5s.

July 19.—A welcome legacy falls due to-day, and helps to swell the total receipts to £412 19s. 2d. for the Homes. A deeply interested donor sends £250 for the Sanatoria, and thus in both branches of the funds there is good measure pressed down and running over, for which thanksgiving is due to the Giver of all good.

July 25.—The receipts for the last four days have been £3 11s. 7d., £7 12s., £9 14s. 6d., and £3 respectively. To-day an old friend over 90 years of age sends £20; from our frequent helper in Crieff comes 10s.; from Fenwick, £1; from Dundee, 5s.; and from one of our own girls 10s., making a total of £22 5s.

July 31.—The needs of the Sanatoria are so great and the gifts are so few that we have been seriously considering the necessity of making a small charge for maintenance. A letter like the following received to-day rather adds to the perplexity:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—Will you accept of a parcel of clothing which I have sent by rail to-day, also I enclose a 5s. postal order for the consumption sanatoria, a thankoffering for health restored through the treatment there. Sorry to hear that the funds are so low, but I trust that enough may be received to allow the working classes free treatment. I would give more if I could, knowing the benefit that it has been to me, but I will do my best to interest my friends that I may be able to send you another contribution later on. All my friends are delighted to see me looking so well and fat. I hope Mrs. Quarrier and you are keeping well, also your family. May the Lord bless you for the help you have given to suffering humanity.—I am, a Grateful Patient.

We have never felt that the Sanatoria had always to be carried on on the same lines as the Homes, for which we have ever rested on the promise, "Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive." In how wonderful a manner the provision has been made those who have watched the growth of the work know. The mustard seed of thirty-one years ago has flourished into a great tree. We who have been intimately associated with it from the first and the friends of to-day can but acknowledge "it is the Lord's doing, and is marvellous in our eyes." For the future of the Sanatoria we wait for guidance. Our aim has been to shew that the disease can be cured, and thus help to lift the burden of despair from many lives. If more are to be helped God will direct by the gifts He sends.

August 2.—£100 came to us to-day from a most unexpected source, once more reminding us that God can feed His family in as marvellous a way as He fed his prophet Elijah by the brook Cherith. The self-denying generosity of God's own people is known to Him who still sitteth over against the Treasury and takes note of the offerings of rich and poor that are put therein. During the summer a quiet work of grace has been going on among the children in the Homes, and yesterday at the communion service, which we observe on the first Sabbath of each month, we had the joy of welcoming into the fellowship of the Church nine girls and boys. Others were received in June and July, and still more are enquiring the way. Our longing desire and prayer for every one under our care is that they may in the days of their youth yield themselves to the Saviour, and that from our number God may gather out a people to serve Him when our days on earth are over.

August 8.—This has been a more than usually busy week, as we made a new departure in connection with the children's annual trip. Last year, through the generosity of one friend, they were all taken to the Glasgow Exhibition. This year the town of Ayr was selected as our destination, and through the gifts of many we were able to take our whole family—girls on one day and boys on another—to see the "Banks and braes o' bonnie Doon." To say that they enjoyed the outing is putting it too mildly. The weather on both days was all that could be desired. An early start was made from the Homes, and every available conveyance, including farmers' carts, kindly loaned for the occasion, was brought into use to take the little folk to Bridge-of-Weir Station. From there a special train took them in an hour to Ayr, and, preceded by the Boys' Band, they marched to the Low Green, and after a short address of welcome from Rev. Dr. McCrie to the girls, and from Rev. Mr. Duncan to the boys, the bairns soon found their way to the shore, where boating and other amusements filled up the time. At 12 dinner was served by a local purveyor, and at 5 tea, and at 7 we left for Home. It may not be out of place to give here a cutting from a local paper shewing how the company impressed a stranger:—

On Tuesday I learned that the children from Mr. Quarrier's Homes were going to be on the Low Green, so I hid me down to have a look at the throng. There were swarms of little ones there, nearly all girls, but I concluded they were not from Quarrier's Homes, but Sabbath School children on a trip from the country, for they were all daintily dressed, seemingly according to the tastes of their respective parents, and running about enjoying themselves to the full. So, after watching their gambols for a space, I returned to mine den, vowing to be equal with my misinformant. Toward evening, when prowling round, I was attracted by a band coming down Sandgate, and waited till it passed. The band was composed of boys, in a trig uniform with white facings, and in the wake of the band followed a procession of little girls—the little ones that I had seen on the Green earlier in the day. I asked a spectator who they were, and he replied, "Quarrier's girls." I had expected to see them all in a dingy kind of uniform; but here they were, not two in the whole quarter of a mile procession dressed alike, and the kindly wisdom of the arrangement raised the management of these Homes for parentless children three or four notches further up in my already high estimation of them. Yesterday I was equally pleased with the appearance of the boys from the Homes.

August 9.—We celebrated to-day the Coronation of King Edward and Queen Alexandra by carrying through the games and contests which had to be postponed owing to the King's illness. All passed off pleasantly and successfully, and will ever be a happy memory to the children.

August 11.—Among to-day's gifts, which amount to £18 4s., is one of 30s. from one of our old sailor lads. At the Church services yesterday Rev. J. C. Lawson, of Aligarh, India, told the children of the work he and his fellow-helpers are doing among the famine sufferers in that distant part of our Empire, and opportunity was given for contributing, which the children and workers did to the amount of £22 10s. We aim at teaching the children to give cheerfully as God prospers them, and we are rejoiced to know that many are carrying out this principle now they are making their own way in the world. The following letter from one of our boys just to hand is an evidence of this:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I'm sure you'll be surprised to hear from me. Yes, I guess you are every day hearing from people you have already for. often. Well, I intended writing to you some months ago, but have been on the sick list for some time, but glad to say I'm much better lately. I am sending you a small sum, or rather I'll say a few dollars—$15—to help you feed your large family. I hope you will accept same from me as one that don't forget a good turn done him. Please let me know if you receive this. I'll write to you again when I hear from you.

A patient writes:—

DEAR MR QUARRIER—It is with a grateful and glad heart that I take up my pen to thank you, for all the care and kindness, besides being brought back to health at No. 1 Sanatoria. I shall ever remember the pleasant and happy resting time, and the delightful soul reviving services in Church and No. 2—my prayer shall ever be that God may long spare you to carry on the great and glorious work for the Master. With many thanks for benefits received.—Your grateful patient.

August 13.—From Hamilton, £5; from Edinburgh, 5s.; from Avon-bridge, 10s.; from a Junior Fancy Work Class, with best wishes, 25s.; from Slateford, a generous contribution of £5 3s. 6d. sent by the children of the U.F. Church Sabbath School; from the Helensburgh Working Boys' and Girls' Religious Society, £2 14s.; from Braemar, £4 4s., collected by a frequent helper; and from London, £3 3s. The last-mentioned donor spent a Sabbath with us some time ago, and it rejoices us to hear that his spirit was refreshed and his faith strengthened by seeing what God hath wrought here.

August 18.—A valued helper in Campbeltown forwards to-day £36 2s., collected among friends there, which service she has voluntarily carried out for many years. We thank God for the steadfastness of many helpers all over the country who have continued with us from the early days until now. A little boy in Cape Colony again sends 25s., with every good wish; from Arran comes 5s., from Dunblane 1s., from Edinburgh 5s., and from a good friend of the Sanatoria, £100 to help the fund for maintenance.

August 25.—Our hearts are full of thanksgiving to-day for a gift of £1000 from a young lady towards the much-needed Sanatorium for men. She requests that it may be used for a ward in memory of her father, who took a deep interest in the work. This generous gift again awakens the hope that we shall soon see the fulfilment of our desires in sufficient means for the erection of a door of hope for men.

August 27.—An echo of the Coronation comes to us to-day in a cheque for £22 2s. 9d., the amount of a collection in Dunblane Cathedral on the Sunday following Coronation, when the three Presbyterian congregations worshipped together. From Milngavie Boys' Brigade we have £1 15s.; from Airdrie Schools Football Committee, £1; from Leith, 10s., "in recognition of a happy holiday;" from one of our old girls, 6s.; from Bristol, 5s., "for blessings received from the King;" from the grandmother of children helped, 10s.; from Children's Seaside Services, Dunoon, £3; from a Leith Sabbath School, £1; from Cambuslang, £2 2s.; from a Glasgow Bible Class, for the Sanatoria, £1; and a kind neighbour sends one dozen nice useful saucepans.

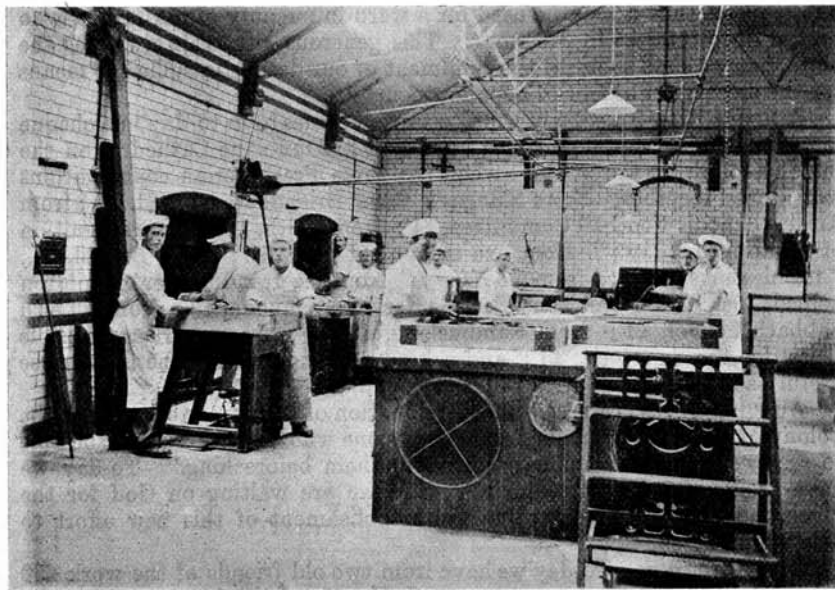

August 30.—Yesterday another donation of £10 came to hand for the Colony of Mercy as a thankoffering from one who "hopes we may be able to receive some poor sufferers and help them before long." To-day we have 3s. 6d. for the same purpose, and we are waiting on God for the revelation of His will regarding the establishment of this new effort to help the afflicted.

September 2.—To-day we have from two old friends of the work £50 for the Sanatoria; from anonymous, J. K., £1; from Glasgow, £1, to be divided between Homes and Sanatoria; from Campsie, £10 for the Sanatoria; from Dundee, £2 2s.; from Bath, £5 for Sick Girls' Home, £5 for Sick Boys' Home, £5 for general work, and £5 for Male Sanatorium; from a London friend visiting, £1 1s.; from an anonymous friend, Uddingston, £1; from Renton, £3; from a farmer, £1; from Luss, 14s.; and from Dunfermline, £1, "as a thankoffering to God for His goodness in restoring health after a serious illness." For these renewed tokens of our Father's care we praise Him, and rejoice that so many of His people share with us the privilege of being His instruments in saving the young lives from misery and want, and instructing them in the things which pertain to their eternal welfare. This month is a memorable one in the history of the Homes, as it was in September, 1871, God led us by an unmistakeable sign, in answer to prayer, to take up this ministry for Him. During the 31 years that have elapsed since that time we have had wonderful manifestations of His goodness, and it is with full hearts we call on our friends and neighbours to come together every two years to rejoice with us, and to thank Him for all His marvellous loving kindness towards the work. Thursday, 4th September, was the "Thanksgiving Day" fixed on this year, and although the weather was wet and stormy hundreds of interested friends gathered with us. At the close of the day we felt that even "the stormy wind fulfilled His word." The following account of the day's proceedings, taken from The Weekly Leader, will interest many who were unable to be present:—

A garden city is a dream of the present day, which already has its realisation in the Orphan Homes and Sanatoria which have been established on the country slopes near Bridge-of-Weir through the consecrated energy of Mr. William Quarrier. The resources behind this philanthropist may be indicated by the phrase which means so much—the power of prayer.

Every second year a Thanksgiving Service is held at the Homes, at which special thanks are given for the gifts of the preceding twenty-four months. The biennial service was held on Thursday last at Bridge-of-Weir, and although wet and stormy weather prevailed, numbers of people from Glasgow, Greenock, Paisley, and the neighbouring districts took advantage of the special railway and bus arrangements in order to be present.

Since the last "Thanksgiving," in September, 1900, there have been gifted to the Homes the fire station, with engine and full equipment; the new stables, the great organ in the church, the "Macfarlane" Home, the "Piedie Alexander" Home, and the "Robertson" Home, in addition to money for alterations at sanatoria and stores, and improvements on the grounds, amounting in all to about £20,000.

In the afternoon a meeting was held in the church. Mr. A. Cameron Corbett, M.P., presided, and was accompanied on the platform by Rev. Dr. Jervis Coats, Rev. Dr. James Paton, Rev. Dr. James Wells, Rev. W. Murray, Pekin; Councillor J. P. Maclay, and Messrs. Leonard Gow, Michael Honeyman, William C. Coghill, A. P. Forrester Paton, and Dr. Pollock. Letters of apology were intimated from Lord Overton; Mr. J. G. A. Baird, M.P.; Mr. Alexander Ure, M.P.; and others. Rev. Dr. Wells having offered prayer,

The CHAIRMAN said that these Thanksgiving Services were among the most interesting occasions that were to be found in the West of Scotland. They formed really a sermon of the highest order and the deepest interest, and they showed that the religion of Christ had in no degree lost its power and that after the centuries that had passed since God revealed Himself upon earth in Christ there were many men who earnestly desired to do Christ's will. Whatever men might say, the power of religion was deeper and stronger to-day than ever before in the history of the world. These Homes afforded an illustration of it. He had followed Mr. Quarrier's work with interest and some knowledge ever since his boyhood, and he told them that when he considered how the needs of those orphan children were met, with nothing more than a sufficiency, he knew of absolutely no explanation which could be given of it upon any materialistic grounds; he knew of no possible explanation except the one given by Mr. Quarrier, that he had trusted the children to the personal care of God, that God had taken a personal interest in them, and had exactly supplied their needs from year to year.

Rev. Dr. PATON paid a high tribute to Mr. Quarrier, whose example, he said, had been one of the greatest experiences of his life.

MR. EEN. DUNCAN spoke as a member of the Advisory Board of the Consumption Sanatoria at Bridge of Weir. He claimed that Mr. Quarrier was one of the pioneers of the open-air treatment of the disease. When he began his advocacy for the Sanatoria there was no institution of the kind in this country. Mr. Quarrier had shown great sagacity in connection with the Sanatoria. He had always taken the advice of the competent medical men who formed the Advisory Board. Referring to the success that had attended it, Dr. Duncan said that no similar institution in the world had shown better results than the one at Bridge of Weir.

MR. QUARRIER, in the course of his address, referred to the question of the education of the children in the Homes. They had, he said, been denied education by the School Board, but they got a higher education which cost the country nothing—that was godly upbringing, industrious habits, honesty of purpose, and a lot of other things that money could not buy. (Applause.) Mr. Quarrier made a somewhat strong attack on the authorities concerned, who, he asserted, had denied the children in the Homes their legal right to be educated. He referred also to a case of infectious disease which had broken out in the Homes, and stated that the medical officer had refused to order the case to be removed. He had communicated with the authorities on the matter, and awaited their reply. Referring generally to the work of the Homes, he mentioned that the donations received during the past two years (apart from the special contributions of buildings and property) amounted to somewhere about £67,000. He alluded also to his future plans. He was desirous of having erected consumption sanatoria for males, which would cost about £50,000. Towards that sum he had already got £2500. He had also a desire to make provision for epileptics, to form "a colony of mercy," and for that purpose £20,000 would be needed.

Dedicatory prayers for the additions made to the homes during the past two years were offered by Rev. Dr. Jervis Coats and Rev. Geo. G. Green.

The contributions to-day include £1 from the grateful mother of two little girls helped, £3 from Hillhead, 2s. 6d. from a little girl of ten who is "sorry she cannot attend the thanksgiving service," 5s. from Kilmalcolm, 10s. from Irvine, 15s. from Hull, £1 from a frequent helper in Leith, and £60 16s., the amount of the collection and gifts for to-day's special expenses. In addition £1000 was handed to us towards the new Colony of Mercy—another token that the Master wishes this new work to be done. We trust the balance needed for the ground and gifts of money for the erection of houses will be sent ere long, so that a beginning may be made to help the sufferers.

September 5.—£20 comes to-day from Largs, collected by a lady who has for many years helped the work and interested others in it. "A thank-offering" from Kilmalcolm adds £1 to the funds, and the same amount comes from Troon and from Whiteinch, "One who admires your work in the Lord" sends 2s. 6d. from Brechin, a Mothers' Meeting in Ayr forwards 12s.; some servants send three pairs stockings and two hoods, and two boxes of fish come from Newhaven. The following letter of thanks for benefits received is cheering amid the toil of endeavouring to rescue and help others:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—My wife and I desire to express our sincere thanks to you for the great benefits our daughter has received in your Consumption Homes at Bridge of Weir. We look upon you as the saviour of our daughter from an early grave. We can only thank you, dear Mr. Quarrier, and pray that you may be long spared to carry on this glorious work. You know we working poor would just have to die if it were not for you and that great big heart of yours. We trust we will soon be able to help with a donation now and again on behalf of your great work.—I am, yours in His service.

Sept. 10.—Yesterday's contributions were only 30s. altogether, £1 being from our frequent helper in Crieff, and 10s. from Perth. To-day, £8 5s. 10d. have reached us from various givers, and an unusual gift of six live hens to add to the big collection at our poultry farm. News from our scattered family is always of interest to us, and the following letter from one of the boys written to the mother of Ashgrove Home is cheering:—

DEAR MOTHER,—It is such an awful time since I wrote to you that I am sure you will think I have forgotten all about the folks at Bridge of Weir, and yet I have thought a great deal about you all since I left the Homes, more so than I care to tell, and the memory of what was taught me there has saved me from many an evil that otherwise would have been my ruin. I tell you, mother, although there may not be much apparent fruit attending your labour as it is, there often comes a time in the career of some of your boys (when they are far away from the influences that affected them when with you), a time that causes them to bless the day that saw them enter the gates of the Orphan Homes of Scotland. What would the lives of some of us be had we been allowed to run wild as we were. Without going further than myself, I think some of us would have been past redemption, beyond all hope of a reformation in any sense of the word. However, thank God, such is not the case. Although I cannot by any means claim much of the element called perfection, yet I do the best I can towards that point. But you will, no doubt, be surprised to know that I am in South Africa now. I have been up at the front fighting, and I came down about three weeks ago as time expired, expecting to get home, but I didn't. It seems that there are no boats available for the transportation of troops until after the Coronation, and as I don't feel like waiting that length of time I am going up to the front again, and won't be down till Christmas. However, when I do get down next time, I will pay my passage home instead of waiting for the military authorities to send me, and by that way I may get home by the latter end of January. I am not quite sure whether I should go to Glasgow or Canada. My affections say the former, but my business qualities point to Canada. I will know more definitely when I leave the regiment. I will write and let you know then if I am then going to Scotland, for if I am then I will most assuredly run down to Bridge of Weir and see how you all are. Write to me occasionally, mother, and give me all the news about the Homes. I will be awfully well pleased to get a letter from you when I am up at the front, so good-bye for a little while. With love to yourself and father, and all the boys.—Your first boy.

Sept. 17.—An old friend now in his 80th year, whose past gifts have often cheered us, sends £100, which makes to-day's receipts the largest since Thanksgiving Day. Among the numerous letters received is the following from a grateful widowed mother, whose urgent distress we relieved by caring for her children while she made a brave endeavour to gather together a home for them:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I write to thank you again and again for your goodness to my dear children. It is such joy to be together again, and to see them so well and bright, and it is such a help to me this coming winter to know that my children will be warmly clad whatever happens. I am very, very grateful, and will from time to time write you as to their welfare. Again thanking you for all the care my dear ones have had, and for the sending them back to me.

Her little girl also writes:—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—Mother is writing to you, and I feel I must put a little letter into her's. Mother goes out to work every day, and I am her little housekeeper, and then we go to meet her coming home at half-past five at night. Next week after the Autumn holiday we are going to school. I shall feel strange among strange children, but God will take care of little Janet in Glasgow as He did in Bridge of Weir. Mother took me to the meeting last night. I thank you so much for the Bible with my name on it, which I found when I unpacked. I promise you to read it often.—I remain, your loving little girl.

We trust she may be kept from evil and become a good, useful woman.

Sept. 30.—This last day of the month finds us again with a balance on hand, and every need met. Among the 22 new children added to our family during the month are a number of very sad cases from homes ruined by drink. How we long for the time when that enemy of all progress will be banished from the land. We are often besieged with applications on behalf of the children of drunken fathers, but, if we admitted such, a village more than twice the size of this would be required to accommodate the numbers that seek our help. We have therefore to limit admission to children deprived of their fathers by death, for whom we can plead the promise, "leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive." The following letter is typical of many we receive, and the boy being fatherless we have agreed to take him in:—

MR. QUARRIER, DEAR SIR,—I am deeply concerned about my daughter's boy, aged five. Being advised to apply to you, I beg respectfully to lay my case before you in the hope that if in your power you will assist me. My husband is a confirmed ne'er-do-weel, who never did contribute to the rearing of his own family, but left me to work for him and them. Ultimately, on the getting to womanhood of my oldest we had to expel him from the house. Since then I have reared three daughters and two sons, one of the latter now dead. My second oldest daughter's husband died two years ago, leaving his wife with three children—two girls and a boy. Since his death his wife (my daughter) has went entirely to the bad. I have striven to the utmost to wean her off the cursed drink, but without avail. I have had her put into a home, having left on my hands her three children. Two of them I have been fortunate in getting homes for with friends leaving the boy, five years of age, still under my care. As I am 70 years of age, and have to go out to work daily for to support myself, I am quite unable to look after the child, who is in my absence knocked about in a locality which is reckoned one of the worst in Edinburgh. Sir, I beg of you to relieve me of this boy by taking him to your Institution, where he will, I am assured, be made a man of. I can give you good references to verify my story.

Oct. 2.—A recent visitor sends £4, and writes :—

MY DEAR SIR,—I can hardly tell you how great a pleasure my visit to your orphan homes gave me, and how deep an impression your conversation and intense faith in prayer made upon me. I enjoyed very greatly all that I saw, and regretted that time would not permit me to see more; but by far the best result has been the stimulus it has given to my belief in prayer, and I sincerely trust that my faith may continue to grow as yours has done.

£12 10s. comes from a Glasgow business man, his "usual mite to help in the upkeep of your numerous family of helpless bairns." £2 was left by two visitors, and a Sabbath School in Bellahouston sent £1 6s. 9d.

Oct. 6.—Of to-day's contributions, which amount to £4 3s. 6d. for Homes and £5 2s. for Sanatoria, £3 is from the mother of a former patient in grateful acknowledgment of the benefit her daughter received.

Oct. 8.—In accordance with our usual practice, the children and workers at the service in the Church this evening apportioned to various Home and Foreign Missions the collections taken at the Church doors during the year. The total amount contributed is £236 6s. 9½d., of which £63 17s. 11d. was handed to the representatives of different Missions who visited the Homes and addressed meetings, and the balance of £172 8s. 10¾d. will now be forwarded to help God's work in China, India, Africa, Canada, South America, and the New Hebrides, and to assist Infirmaries and Hospitals in the City.

Oct. 9.—To-day another patient, who left the Sanatoria three months ago, handed in at our door a letter containing £5 as a token of gratitude. These are encouragements by the way, as the expenses of the Sanatoria are heavy and the gifts coming are barely sufficient to meet them. We are not in debt, but are anxious to see a more wide-spread interest in the efforts being made to deal with the greatest scourge of our land.

Oct. 10.—From London we have the following letter :—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—According to promise, I now enclose cheque for £50 which I wish to be devoted to the maintenance of a child for four years. My visit to you will always be a pleasant remembrance, and I shall not soon forget the happy faces of your large family, and the cheerful, sensible, and methodical fathers and mothers. I hope you may always find it as easy to find these latter parents as you do the children.

The securing of suitable helpers is one of our greatest difficulties, but we have reason to praise God for the many devoted co-workers, who, for Jesus' sake, labour among the children, seeking to fit them to fill useful places in the world, and to train them for God's service here and hereafter. No money consideration makes up to them for the disinterested service they render, but the Master's "well done" will more than repay when the day's work is done.

Oct. 13.—In view of the close of the year, we have been praying that our Heavenly Father may again set His seal to the work by sending sufficient to pay all the accounts due. We were much cheered to-day by the following letter and cheque from a dear friend, who has for many years carried on this work for the Master which was begun by her mother in the early days of the Homes, and which calls forth renewed thanksgiving to God, not only for this friend, but for the many who are "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord."

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—I have been able once more to collect a little for your work, and have pleasure in sending you the enclosed cheque for £68 5s. 6d. I got a special contribution this year, which has made the amount larger than any previous one I have sent. You will be interested to know that it was largely through an account of the Homes which I gave, and of what I heard and saw on your Thanksgiving Day last month that this friend was moved to give me the donation. Although the day was so wet and stormy I enjoyed my visit, and felt more and more interested in your work, and more and more impressed with its growth and progress, evidently manifesting that the blessing of God was with you, and rejoicing that your abundant labours had not been in vain in the Lord.

Oct. 17.—Among to-day's letters is an application from a Major-General in Edinburgh on behalf of the four children of another victim of the South African War. The mother, alas, is also a victim to a more deadly enemy than war, and the poor children are in dire need of the help which we are, thank God, able to give them. This week a destitute family of seven children have been brought to us from Stornoway, and we have been asked to receive another family of five fatherless boys from Rutherglen. In view of such additions, to-day's gifts, amounting to £100 17s. for the Homes are particularly cheering, although there is nothing for the Sanatoria. We were touched to-day in reading some lines written by a little chap in one of the Homes, the last verse of which is

"And if we still hold on and trust
And serve the Lord with fear,
He'll do some other mighty works
In the Homes at Bridge-of-Weir."

Many will say amen to this expression of the little lad's faith. One of our old girls about to take an important step writes :—

DEAR MR. QUARRIER,—This is a few lines to say I trust you are quite well. I have no doubt you will, perhaps, forget who it is that is addressing you, but I am one of the many you have given a help in this world to, and I thank you, and thank Jesus Christ for opening the heart of the kind friends in Dundee, and telling them to send me to Quarrier's Homes. I trust both you and your partner in life may be spared for many a year to come. Now, I must tell you something of myself, I am a cook, and have £18 a year and a comfortable home and kind mistress, but I am to be married soon. I have to thank God for a Christian friend.

Oct. 18.—A legacy left by the late Dr. Turner, of Bridge-of-Weir, has been paid to-day, and adds £511 16s. 3d. to the maintenance fund of the Sanatoria, and by the same post comes £150 from the Trustees of the Thomas Porter Fund, to be used for outfitting boys and girls and giving them a start in life.

Oct. 21.—To-day there have come £1 from Edinburgh, £1 from Glasgow, £1 from Helensburgh, 10s. from Grangemouth, 5s. from Clydebank, 5s. from the grateful mother of a wee lame girl under our care, two pairs useful stockings from North Berwick, and 13 articles of clothing from a kind friend in Inch who has frequently helped us in the same way. We have also from Glasgow another £100 for the Colony of Mercy.

Oct. 31.—These last days of another year have brought to us so many tokens of loving interest from God's children around us and at a distance, that as we close our books and find every debt paid and sufficient on hand for a few more days' maintenance, out of full hearts we praise God from whom all blessings flow. The continual flow of gifts from the first day of the year until this, the last, calls forth grateful acknowledgment of our Heavenly Father's goodness and of the generosity of His people who consider the poor. That each one who has in any way helped on the work has enjoyed the "more blessedness" of the givers we are sure, as we realise what the joy of the receivers has been.

CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND. £6,000 required annually for Maintenance, £30,000 for three additional Sanatoria for Women and £70,000 for five Sanatoria for Men.

PATIENTS WALKING OUT IN WINTER WITHOUT HATS OR WRAPS.

The results obtained during the past year in this department of the work are highly satisfactory and encouraging, as will be seen from the Doctor's report. It is exceedingly gratifying that owing to the larger numbers dealt with this year the cost of maintenance has been reduced to 30s. a week for each patient, and this without lessening the efficiency of the work done or reducing the quantity or quality of the food provided. Since the Sanatoria were opened 540 female patients have been in residence, and 2,338 individual cases have received advice and treatment at the Dispensary. We rejoice in the increased interest being shown throughout the country in efforts to deal with this pitiful disease which disables such a large number of people, both males and females, at a time when their lives are most valuable to the community and to their families. But much more must be done before we can boast that adequate provision has been made for the working classes and the poor. The present accommodation of 80 beds in our two Sanatoria for females has been taxed to its utmost all through the year, and scores of other needy ones are always waiting their turn for admission. Scarcely a day passes without bringing us appeals from men and children for whom we have no provision, and we have sorrowfully to send them away in despair. We estimate that £100,000 will be required to carry out a national scheme worthy of our country, i.e., £30,000 to complete the Sanatoria for females and add 120 beds to the 80 we already have, making 200 in all; £70,000 to build a like group or colony of Sanatoria for 200 males. We shall be glad to receive gifts towards this great national work or to co-operate with any committee that may be appointed to carry out the plans. Immediate action will save many lives, and "he gives twice who gives quickly." £10,000 will build a Sanatorium with 40 beds. £75 will maintain a bed for one year, and £1 10s. will keep a patient for one week.

ANNUAL REPORT OF MEDICAL OFFICER.

Number of Patients Treated.—The year commenced on 1st November, 1901, with 80 patients—40 in each Pavilion. During the twelve months ending October 31st, 1902, 230 patients were discharged, while the year closed with both houses full. The average residence of those discharged reached 127·8 days or approximately four months, the maximum being 200 days, and the minimum 29 days. Owing to the great pressure the average residence has been reduced, as will be seen, by 3 weeks from last year's, which has materially affected results shown, since with a little longer stay and treatment many included under Relatively Cured and Very Much Improved would rise to the class above.

Results.—In the subjoined table are given the results obtained during the year :—

Cured.	Relatively Cured.	Very much Improved.	Improved.	Condition Unchanged.
36 (16·27%)	62 (27·9%)	72 (32·4%)	38 (17·1%)	14 (6·3%)

In the above table 8 patients are not included who were only a few days under treatment. Six of these proved either unwilling or unfit to undergo treatment; one was a case of cardiac and not pulmonary disease, while one was discharged suffering from phthisical mania. One patient died from pneumothorax shortly after admission. The number treated during the year is more than double that of the previous one.

Regarding the results tabulated above it is desirable to clearly define the various headings under which the patients discharged are classed. Under "Cured" are placed those patients in whom we regard healing to have taken place, with the formation of cicatricial tissue. On examination no physical signs, if we except some deviation from the normal in the character of respiratory murmur over the scar area, are to be found. There is no cough or expectoration, the temperature has for some time run an afebrile course, and the pulse-rate and respirations are normal. The term "Relatively Cured" is applied to those patients who are practically well, and physically fit to return to suitable employment and earn their livelihood. On examination physical signs, such as impaired resonance, abnormal breath sounds, and various râles are found present, but only to a slight extent. Cough and expectoration are usually present, but in no case have Tubercle Bacilli been found in the sputum when examined three days before leaving. Under "Very Much Improved" are classed those whose general condition gives evidence of considerable improvement, and in whom the physical signs are less distinctive than when admitted. Cough and expectoration are, however, present, and Tubercle Bacilli are still to be found in the sputum. The heading "Improved" is mainly applicable to the weight and general condition. The cases included under "Condition Unchanged" gave no evidence of improving under treatment, owing to the advanced stage of the disease, or the presence of tuberculous or lardaceous disease in other organs.

The Stage of the Disease.—The various stages of the disease from which those discharged suffered are indicated as follows :—

1st Stage (Early)	2nd Stage (Intermediate)	3rd Stage (Advanced)
49	121	52

Regarding the diagnosis of the disease in those discharged during the year some particulars may be interesting and instructive. Included under the first and second stages were several cases in which the expectoration was either entirely absent, or was not found to contain Tubercle Bacilli on examination. In a certain number of these cases, the diagnosis of tuberculous phthisis was made from the presence of significant physical signs associated with a continuous evening pyrexia, or a history of hæmoptysis. Where doubt existed Koch's new tuberculin in doses from mg. $\frac{1}{5}$ to mg. 1 was used to confirm the diagnosis. Particulars upon which diagnosis was based :—

The presence of Tubercle Bacilli was detected in	154
Reaction to tuberculin was obtained in	10
Physical signs with history of hæmoptysis present in	26
Physical signs with evening pyrexia present in	32

(b) Of number discharged as cured

Details concerning Patients' Weights.

Average total gain per patient,	1 st. 5 lbs. 6 ozs.
Average weekly gain per patient,	1 lb. 1·2 ozs.
1 patient increased in wt. 3 st 1 lb 4 oz.	54 patients increased in wt 1 to 1½ stones.
10 patients " " 2½ to 3 stones.	44 " " " ½ to 1 stone.
25 " " " 2 to 2½ " "	17 " " " under ½ stone.
65 " " " 1½ to 2 " "	6 " " lost from 1 lb. 2 oz. to 4 lb. 10 oz.

The loss in weight occurred in patients in whom the disease was advanced, or who suffered from tuberculous or lardaceous disease of the bowel.

Treatment.—The method of treatment adopted has been described in previous reports, and it is therefore unnecessary to enter into detail here. Cases of mixed infection, which are characterized by elevated temperature, and the presence of various micrococci, in addition to the Tubercle Bacillus in the sputum, do not respond so readily to hygienic and dietetic treatment as do those of simple infection. Some further treatment is therefore required, and we have obtained some encouraging results in such cases by inhalations of pure formalin as recommended by Dr. Duncan.

Occupations of Patients Discharged.—It would seem from a glance at the figures given below that those who remain at home during the day are more liable to develop pulmonary tuberculosis than those who perforce have to earn their livelihood.

The importance of ventilation in homes cannot, it is clear, be too strongly advocated.

Dispensary Work.—It will be seen by the following table that the number of patients, more especially males, who seek advice and treatment at the Dispensary in St. Andrew's Square, Glasgow, has increased enormously. The intelligent appreciation of the method of treatment shown by the majority of patients is gratifying, and convinces one that if the process of educating the public be persevered in, better results in the future will be obtained.

RULES FOR ADMISSION OF PATIENTS.

Patients to be eligible must be necessitous, and no applicant will be received under 16 years of age or over 40. On application to Mr. Quarrier, the name is put upon the list, and when a vacancy occurs a blank medical certificate will be forwarded, which must be filled up and returned by the doctor attending the case; patients will then be informed when to attend the Glasgow Dispensary for final examination, and admission, if found suitable. Applicants who are approved must be recommended by two responsible parties, and are admitted strictly in turn.

Copies of our booklet entitled "Counsels to Consumptive Patients," may be had on application.

THE CHILDREN FROM THE HOMES AND THEIR BAND VISITING THE TWO CONSUMPTION SANATORIA ON MAY DAY.

SUMMARY OF THE YEAR'S WORK.

ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND, BRIDGE-OF-WEIR, AND CITY ORPHAN HOME, GLASGOW.—On 1st November, 1901, there were resident in the Homes 1,168 boys and girls. During the year 306 new cases have been admitted, making a total of 1,474 dealt with.

These have been disposed of as follows:—Outfitted and sent to domestic service, trades, and situations, 64; outfitted and sent to sea, 3; outfitted and sent to Canada, passage being paid by brothers in the Dominion, 12; deaths, 6; children under 5 years adopted, 5; returned to relatives now in a position to provide for them, 124; left and dismissed, 16; sent to other institutions, 4; leaving in the Homes on 31st October, 1902, 1,240, of whom 717 are boys and 523 girls.

From the above it will be seen that 84 boys and girls have been placed in positions to make their own way without any further expense to the Homes. The older girls having been trained for domestic service, situations were found for them, and the older boys were apprenticed to trades, etc. Many of those returned to friends were old enough to start work, and, where necessary, we helped with outfits, so that they need be no burden to the relatives who have undertaken the oversight of them.

CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND.—310 non-paying female-patients were treated during the year, and there were 1,893 attendances at the Dispensary, showing a large increase over previous years.

The amount received during the year in answer to prayer is as follows:—For the General Fund, which includes the keep of the Homes at Bridge-of-Weir and the City Home Refuge and Mission, including £1,075 14s. 3½d. earned by working boys, £15,757 5s. 11d.; for Orphan Homes of Scotland Building Fund, £8,111 2s. 8d.; for Consumption Sanatoria, £6,152 4s. 7d.—making the total amount for all purposes, £30,020 13s. 2d., besides large quantities of clothing, provisions, and other useful gifts.

In connection with the City Home work, regular Sunday and Week-day Gospel Meetings have been held in our own Hall, and thousands of tracts have been distributed; 525 homeless wanderers have been provided with food and bed for one or more nights in lodgings, and many visits have been paid to the homes of the poor by our workers. Sick and ailing ones have been provided with lines for Infirmarys and Convalescent Homes, and many others have received help and advice in their time of need.

We gratefully acknowledge God's goodness in the workers He has sent to labour with us in the care of the children. The work is often trying, and we have need of patience, that after we have done the will of God we may inherit the promise.

For the work accomplished we are, under God, indebted to fellow-labourers, and to the practical generosity of friends throughout the country; to ministers, evangelists, and others who have aided in the Gospel work; to Sabbath school superintendents, teachers, and scholars; to ladies who have made up garments for our little ones; to the accountant who audits the books; and to the Press which has given notices of the work.

Their ministry and helpfulness have brought joy and blessing to many lives, and we trust the record will add glory to our Lord and Master who hath wrought all our works in us.

CITY HOME REFUGE AND MISSION WORK.

In the short space at our disposal, we give some account of the work carried on in the City Home and Mission. In its capacity as it occupies a very important position in the work. Applicants of whatever sort are seen here, necessary inquiries made, and all children admitted, cleaned and clothed, prior to their being sent to Bridge-of-Weir. When the great variety of needs among the poor in a great city like Glasgow is thought of, it can well be seen how many will apply to a place where advice, and probably help, may be had at any hour of the day or night. The numbers shown in report as being received or temporarily assisted, do not by any means represent all the cases dealt with, as many children and others who are not eligible for admission receive advice and temporary help. The second department of the work is the

CHILDREN'S NIGHT REFUGE.

Any child under 14 who is homeless and destitute is received at any hour, inquiry is afterwards made, and it is kept, restored to relatives, or otherwise helped as thought best. Frequently ladies and gentlemen are appealed to on behalf of or by children or others, and to save time or trouble a little temporary help is given; this, in many cases, only encourages imposition, and never does any permanent good. If such cases be sent to City Home with a note, they will be attended to and relieved at once, pending inquiries. In the case of virtuous young women, from 14 to 30 years, who may be without proper home, we take them into our where, after several months' training, a situation is found, and they get an outfit of clothing to let them have a fresh start in life. Many of them have had a poor upbringing, and know little about work or order, and some are found not capable of being trained for servants; but, on the whole, they do fairly well. The practical training of these young women dovetails into another branch of the work, the

WORKING BOYS' HOME.

The average number of lads has been about sixty during the year. For the sake of those who may be ignorant of our plans, and who might know lads suitable for admission, we may say that we receive any homeless, destitute boy from 14 to 18 years of age, and also bring, for learning or finishing their trade, any from Bridge-of-Weir whose relatives cannot take them in charge. We find them situations in the city according to their ability, and endeavour, where possible, to apprentice them to trades. We supply them with board, lodgings, and clothing, and in return get all their wages, less one penny per shilling given back as good conduct money; while all over 12s. a week is put to their credit. When they have sufficient wages and choose to go into private lodgings, they get all clothes, etc., as if leaving their father's house, and those who are of saving habits have a few pounds to start with from the wages over 12s.

DISPENSARY FOR SANATORIA.

The front part of the low flat of this building is used as a Dispensary for the Consumption Sanatoria. Dr. Hyslop Thomson, our Medical Officer, attends on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at 2 p.m., to advise outside patients and to examine those applying for admission to the Sanatoria at Bridge-of-Weir.

EVANGELISTIC AND MISSION WORK,

the last, but by no means the least, of the City Home branches of work. Meetings are held on Sunday at 10 for prayer, at 11 for young people, and at 7 for preaching the Gospel to all; while there is a Gospel meeting on Wednesday. The boys and girls in the Home attend two meetings on Sunday and the Wednesday night meeting, and several of the boys—those who profess to be Christians—attend the Sunday prayer meeting. A band of voluntary workers go round the district with tracts; a weekly meeting is carried on in the Women's Lodging House, Moncur Street; in the Hall the love of Christ to the lost and perishing has been faithfully proclaimed by clergymen and laymen of almost every branch of the Christian Church.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mr. THOS. KIRKPATRICK, who passed away after a serious operation on November 18th, 1901, was interested in the work almost since the beginning. His kindly disposition and ready sympathy often cheered us, and will long live in our memories.

Mr. JAS. SLOAN, of Southfield, Crosshill, who was called home on November 21, 1901, was for many years a regular contributor to the Homes, as was also his wife, who died some years ago. Their constant inquiry regarding the welfare of the work was a source of help and encouragement, and their generous gifts often ministered to our necessities.

Lady COLQUHOUN of Luss, who died on January 9th, was a succourer of many, and her gifts of money and goods often cheered us. Her last gift to us was £50, with a small piece of paper on which was written—"To take five boys and five girls off the streets of Glasgow." Her wish was speedily carried out, and the children rescued.

Mrs. RUTHERFORD CLARK, who died in Edinburgh on January 10, 1902, was well known there as a helper of the poor and needy. Through her efforts many destitute and afflicted ones were given the helping hand they needed, and we with numbers of other friends will miss her generous sympathy as well as her financial help. A few weeks before her death (though then ill) she sent a donation towards the maintenance of one of her proteges in the Home and a kindly message to ourselves.

Mrs. IRVINE, who died at Corkerhill on January 21st, was one of our humble givers, and yet of her it might be said as of the widow the Saviour commended, "she hath given more than they all." Some years ago she brought to us £500, which she said had been saved in pennies. We thought the gift too much for her means, but she insisted that it should be used in her lifetime. Now we find she had very little more than sufficient to live upon. At her decease £100 more fell to the Homes to help the needy orphans under our care. The stimulus of such generosity can be better understood than described.

Mrs. WALKER, Buccleuch Street, Greenock, was suddenly called home on March 8th, and in her removal we have lost a helper who took a warm interest in all that concerned the Homes. At her husband's death she, with her family, erected one of the cottages to his memory, and in many other ways interested herself in the Lord's work. She hath done what she could, and many will rise up to call her blessed.

Dr. TURNER, of Bridge of Weir, who died in March last, we frequently met with in our journeys to and from the city, and many a conversation we had regarding the needs of the poor and afflicted. His practical interest was seen in a legacy of £500 which he bequeathed to the Sanatoria, one of the first we have received for that purpose.

Mrs. LOCKHART of Milton Lockhart, who died in London on April 22nd at the ripe age of 90, was also one of our earliest and most frequent givers, besides taking a warm interest in the growth of the work and in all that concerned it. She was well known as a Christian worker, and her influence for good was exercised over a very wide circle.

Mr. W. P. Alexander, of Glasgow and Calcutta, who died at Nauheim, Germany, on May 25th, was one of our helpers and the son of one of our oldest friends. Last year he sent us £2000 to build a house in memory of his dearly loved mother, to be called the Peddie Alexander Home. He also helped the work by his means at other times, and we understand has remembered it in his will.

In the going home of Mr. ALEX. GIBB, of Aberdeen, suddenly on Lord's Day, June 1st, we have lost a dear friend and a generous helper. The memory of his many kindly deeds and works will always be a stimulus to us and to all who knew him.

Miss ELIZABETH CARNEGIE of Craigo and Laverock-Bank House, Edinburgh, although in her 83rd year when she died on July 8th, was up till the end of her long life in close touch with many good works. In March last she wrote to us sending a cheque for £100 for the maintenance of the children, and 15 pairs of stockings, and in her letter she says—"I have been very ill with influenza, and I find it carries away strength of head and hard." Now she has gone to her reward, and her warm sympathy and kindly help will be missed by hundreds, although she has left large bequests to many branches of Christian work, and £1000 to the Homes.

Mr. ALEXANDER CAMPBELL, of Lochgilhead, was another aged friend. He passed away on July 22nd, in his 87th year, and as late as May 4th sent his contribution to the Homes, expressing the wish that we might be long able to continue the work. He was one of the chief inspectors of the Local Government Board, and reported most favourably of the Homes in one of the Blue Books, recommending that such work should have the hearty sympathy of the Government.

Mr. JOHN CHRISTIE of Cowden and Glenfarg, whose death in August has been intimated to us, was a more recent friend of the Homes. In 1895 he sent £2000 to build No. 34 Cottage "Glenfarg Home," and several times visited it. We are informed he has bequeathed a sum of money sufficient to pay for 30 boys' maintenance at £10 annually, besides many other benefactions to other institutions and missions.

Mrs. CORBETT, wife of Mr. A. Cameron Corbett, M.P., one of the Trustees of the Homes, passed away very suddenly in July. In her removal from her young family and from active Christian service, we are brought face to face with one of the mysteries of life, and can but say—"It is the Lord, let Him do what seemeth Him good." He will bless the dispensations of His providence and comfort the mourning husband and mother and children.

Mrs. J. H. DICKSON was another early friend, and to her we were indebted for many gifts, which she always designated as "saved from housekeeping." By her sudden home-call on October 20, we lose a valued friend, and are again made to realise that one by one the loved ones are "gathering homeward from every land."

Mr. WM. WALKER of Leith, of whose unexpected death on September 23rd we have been notified by his lawyers, was in recent years a generous donor to the work. He was an unostentatious good man, who, in seeking to help the poor of Leith through the association of which he was chairman, was pleased with the readiness with which we dealt with applications made for admission to the Homes. He has shown further interest by placing the Homes in his will, and they will ultimately share in the residue of his estate.

Mr. HAMILTON BEITH of Valparaiso, of whose sudden decease on September 1st we have received intimation, was for many years a regular subscriber, one of the very few we have in foreign lands. His sympathy with the work is further seen in a bequest of about £100 which will be paid in due course.

In our large circle of givers there must be many of whose departure we have not heard, besides the following, of whom we cannot write more fully for lack of space:—Mr. SHANKS, Bridge of Weir; Dr. CARMENT, Edinburgh; Mr. JAS. N. CARR, Carlisle; Mrs. ROBT. BARCLAY; Miss J. A. KNOTT, Stalybridge; Mr. ANDREW BUCHANAN; Mr. JOHN M'MURRAY, Bridge of Weir; Mr. LEONARD K. SHAW, Manchester; Mrs. J. W. INNES-WRIGHT, of the Nepal Mission; Mrs. BECKETT, London; Mr. MELVILLE JAMFSON, Perth; Miss AGNES MILLER, Bridge of Weir; Mrs. MOLLOY, of Bridge of Allan; and Mrs. UNDERWOOD, of Shettleston. Of one and all it may truly be said, as Paul testified of Onesiphorus in his day, "They oft refreshed me." Their life work is over, and their memory is blessed. To the sorrowing relatives our deepest sympathies go out, and we commit each one to the God of all comfort and consolation, who knows how to comfort all that are cast down. The great Commander has promoted many of His followers, and He expects others to step into the breach and serve their own generation as their fathers did.

COLONY OF MERCY FOR EPILEPTICS OF SCOTLAND TO COST £20,000, OF WHICH £7,500 IS GIVEN AND PROMISED.

IN last year's report mention was made of our desire to see something done towards the fulfilment of the project that had been long in our minds for relieving the lot of sane Epileptics.

Scotland is behind other civilised nations in having no place but the poorhouse and asylum for such afflicted ones, and as it is computed that there are 4,000 in Scotland alone, there is need that something be done to ameliorate their condition. Many families are burdened by the presence of an epileptic, whose life of involuntary idleness frequently increases the disease, and leads to mental disturbance, necessitating at last removal to an asylum, whereas, under proper treatment, such an end might have been avoided. We have letters from fathers and mothers telling us they are at their wits' end to know what to do with an afflicted son or daughter, and from mission workers and others appealing for help for cases met with in their districts. The claims of these sorely stricken ones should call forth universal sympathy, and we hope to see the day when Scotland will have a Colony of Mercy national in its character and dominated by the spirit of our Lord and Master who, when on earth, said of such, "Bring him to Me."

Friends who are deeply interested in these sufferers have given generous help, and we have now £7,500 in gifts and promises towards the amount required. We have secured the farm of Hattrick, 213 acres adjoining the Homes, at 30 years' purchase, and the money, amounting to £9,600, is to be paid in February. We hope sympathizing friends will send the balance required for the land and also money to erect houses. Hospital treatment is not satisfactory, nor is it available for epileptics, but most beneficent results have been obtained where patients have had a healthy out-door life with supervision which ensured suitable employment and recreation. Last year we visited the Chalfont St. Peter Colony in Buckinghamshire, and also the Maghull Home near Liverpool, and were satisfied that the success attained at these two places would justify a similar Colony being established in our own land. Any one who has visited our poorhouses must have felt that the presence of epileptics among other inmates was most detrimental to both, and yet many respectable people have had to send their relatives there because no other door was open, even when they were able and willing to contribute towards the expense of maintenance. Our aim is to provide this open door where afflicted ones may be sent with the assurance that all that medical skill and sanctified common sense can do for them will be lovingly rendered. At present we propose to make a small charge weekly for each patient, so that once established the Colony will be in a measure, at least, self supporting. £2,000 will build a Home in the Colony to accommodate 20 or 24 men or women. Are there not wealthy Scotsmen who, out of gratitude to God for personal and family immunity from this most terrible of diseases, will make provision for the sufferers of other families? Or are there some with afflicted ones of their own, to whom they are able to give all the comforts and care that money can procure, who will think of the needy sufferers, and send us the means to build a place of refuge for them?

CONCLUSION.

IN reviewing the year's work and bringing the narrative to a close, we are truly grateful to our Heavenly Father and to our helpers everywhere for the results accomplished. The trials by the way are swallowed up in the abounding causes for praise and thanksgiving, and we trust all who read the record of God's faithfulness will be stirred up to trust Him more unreservedly and to serve Him more devotedly in the days to come.

In the year we are entering upon the needs of the work will be greater than ever. The maintenance alone calls for daily provision for 1,450 children and adults to begin with, and, judging from the many applications pouring in upon us, large additions will be made to that number throughout the ensuing months. We estimate £16,000 will be required for current expenses in the Orphan Homes, and £6,000 for the Consumption Sanatoria, besides the innumerable garments and gifts, for which we are ever indebted to kind lady friends. More homes to shelter the destitute, fatherless children will soon be required. £2,000 will build one to accommodate 30 boys or girls, and would be a fitting memorial of some loved one gone home. £2,000 will build a home for epileptics in the new Colony of Mercy, which we hope to see established very soon. £10,000 will erect another Sanatorium for women or one for men, and will help to save valuable lives which are being lost for lack of the timely help that should be available.

In addition to these great needs, we are anxious to have some improvements carried out and some long-felt wants supplied at the Homes. A covered swimming bath and gymnasium, to cost £2,000 or £3,000, would be a useful addition to the Children's City, as would also electric lighting to take the place of the oil lamps in all the houses. We have abundance of steam power as the electric light is in use in the Sanatoria, but the cables, wiring, lamps, etc., would mean an initial cost of £3,000. Perhaps some generous friend will feel led to confer this boon on the community of young life here, and help to brighten their Homes as well as their lives. These financial requirements are great and numerous, but without consecrated helpers we would be unable to use them to advantage. We trust that many who perhaps cannot give money will be led to offer themselves for the Homes and for the Colony of Mercy, for the sake of the opportunity of doing good where good is most urgently needed and sometimes least easily done. We need above everything else more of God's Holy Spirit that He may work in us to will and to do of His good pleasure, for thus only can we present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is our reasonable service. We commit to our Heavenly Father all our needs for the coming year, praying that He may exceed our desires, and still more signally set His seal upon the work which He has blessed so abundantly in the past. His word bids us "Be careful for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let our requests be made known unto God," and we have the promise "My God shall supply all your need, according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." That all who have shared with us the joy of this service in working, giving, and praying, may at last unite in the great harvest home, and hear the Master's "Well done, good and faithful servant," is our earnest prayer.

We lay ourselves on the altar for another year of labour for the Master that He may be glorified.

"If I can live
To make some pale face brighten and to give
A second lustre to some tear dimmed eye,
Or e'en impart
One throb of comfort to an aching heart,
Or cheer some way-worn soul in passing by.

"If I can lend
A strong hand to the fallen or defend
The right against a single envious strain,
My life, though bare
Perhaps of much that seemeth dear and fair
To us on earth, will not have been in vain."

"The purest joy
Most dear to heaven far from earth's alloy
Is bidding clouds give way to sun and shine,
And 'twill be well
If on that day of days the angels tell
Of me 'She did her best for one of Thine.'"—Helen Hunt Jackson.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND (OR CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND).

"I give to WILLIAM QUARRIER, Glasgow, or such other person or persons as shall, when this legacy shall become payable, be the director or directors of the Orphan Homes of Scotland (or Consumption Sanatoria), Glasgow and Bridge-of-Weir, the sum of £ : : to be paid out of such part of my personal estate as shall be legally applicable thereto; and to be applied by the said WILLIAM QUARRIER, or such other director or directors, for the purpose of such Orphan Homes (or Consumption Sanatoria); and his or their receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors."

To prevent mistakes and delay, all letters relating to the Homes or Sanatoria should be addressed to me, at Orphan Homes, Bridge-of-Weir. Cheques and Orders to be made payable to WILLIAM QUARRIER. If more convenient, donations can be left at City Home, 13 James Morrison Street, Glasgow, or paid into the Union Bank of Scotland, 32 Union Street. Donations in money and clothing may also be left with Mr. D. J. Findlay, St. George's Cross Tabernacle. Clothing, provisions, etc., may also be sent to City Home, James Morrison Street; or, if post-card is sent from any part of the city, a messenger will call for parcels. We are now connected with the National Telephone Company, our Telephone Numbers being 332 Trongate, Glasgow, and 16 Bridge-of-Weir.

All donors, whose names and addresses we have, will receive the Annual Report, and others desiring one or more copies can have them forwarded by sending a post-card to City Home, James Morrison Street.

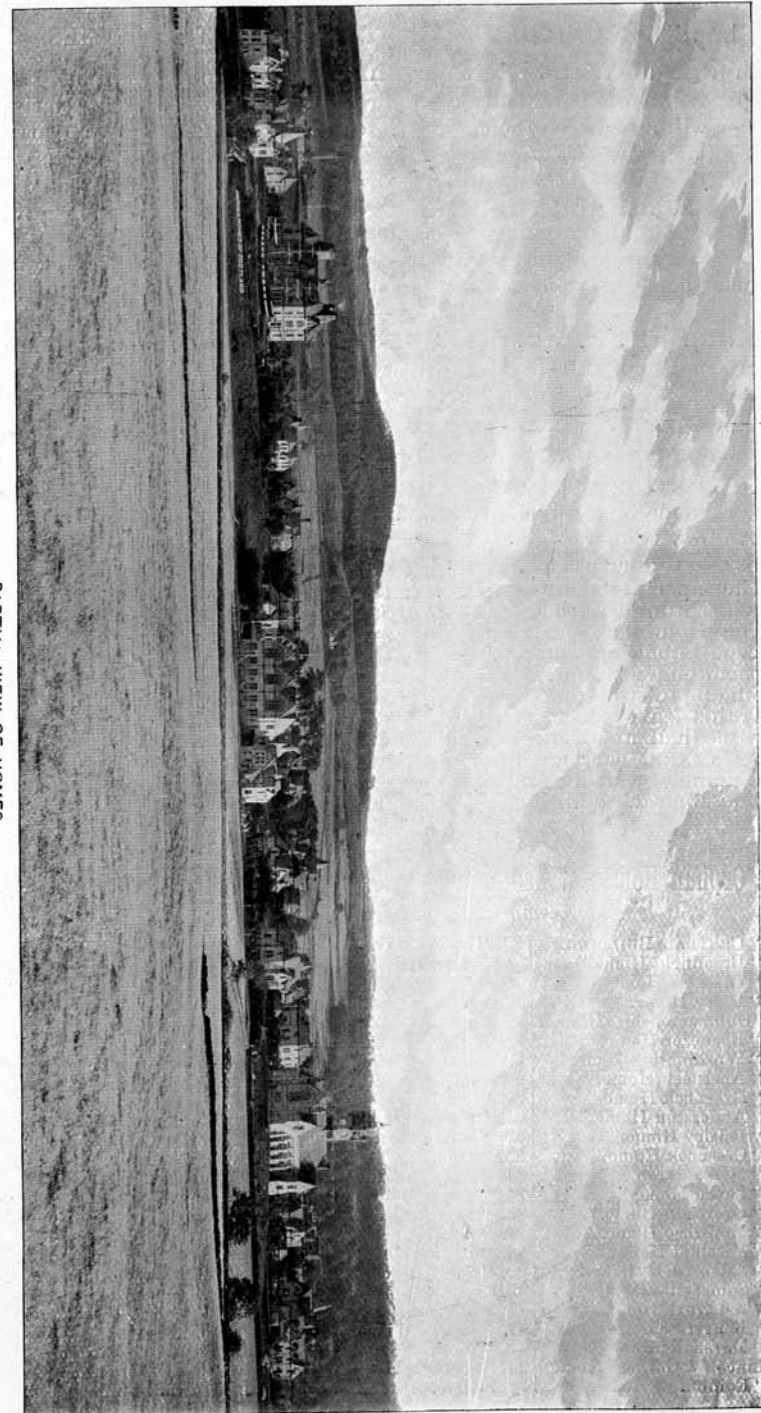

Friends sending Money can have it placed to whatever part of the work they name, either to the General Fund, which includes the maintenance of the Orphan Homes, Bridge-of-Weir, and of the City Home Refuge and Mission Work—to the Orphan Homes' Building Fund, to the Consumption Sanatoria, or to the Colony of Mercy for Epileptics. If left to my discretion, it will be applied to whichever object is most in need at the time. Friends sending their names and addresses will have their Donations acknowledged privately in due course, and failing to receive this should communicate with me at once, in case the money has gone amissing.

PARTIAL VIEW OF HOMES.

ORPHAN HOMES OF SCOTLAND AND CONSUMPTION SANATORIA OF SCOTLAND BRIDGE-OF-WEIR.
There are 64 Buildings already connected with the work. Additional Homes are still required, to cost £2,000 each; also more Sanatoria, to cost £10,000 each.

CLASS OF CHILDREN ADMITTED INTO THE HOMES.

Bridge-of-Weir, Renfrewshire.—Orphan boys and girls deprived of both parents, and children of widows, with no relative able or willing to keep them, from 1 to 14 years of age, from any part of Scotland. Destitution is the title for admission, and there is no subscriber's line or voting paper required.

City Home and Night Refuge, James Morrison St., Glasgow.—Children found begging, sleeping out, or destitute, from 2 to 13 years; working boys who have no home, from 14 to 18 years; and virtuous homeless young women, from 14 to 30 years of age.

Children are admitted at the City Orphan Home, James Morrison Street, off London Street, from 3 to 5 o'clock P.M., on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays.

Mr. Quarrier can be seen by appointment at City Home, 13 James Morrison Street, or at Bridge-of-Weir.

Patients applying for admission to Sanatoria can see our Medical Officer, Dr. HYSLOP THOMSON, at Dispensary, 3 St Andrew's Square, James Morrison Street, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, from two to four o'clock.

The superintendent or matron of the City Home will be glad to show friends through the house any day (Sabbath excepted).

The Homes at Bridge-of-Weir are also open for inspection daily (except Sabbath), and visitors to them will be shewn round by our Superintendent, Central Building, at the hours of 11 A.M., 1 and 3 P.M. From one to two hours is required to see the leading parts of interest.

Trains leave St. Enoch Station almost every hour. Conveyances may be had at Bridge-of-Weir Station by sending a post card to Mr. GARNER, carriage hirer, who will convey friends to and from the Homes,* waiting an hour there, for 3s. for one or three persons, and 1s. for each additional passenger.

* The Homes are two miles from the Station.
